APPLICATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY (U 338-E)
FOR MODIFICATION OF RESOLUTION E-4293, RESOLUTION E-4263, RESOLUTION E-4300, AND RESOLUTION E-4295

Pursuant to General Rules 7.7.2 and 7.8 of the California Public Utilities Commission’s (“CPUC” or “Commission”) General Order (“GO”) 96-B and Rules 2.1 and 16.4 of the CPUC’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, Southern California Edison Company (“SCE”) respectfully submits this Application for Modification of Resolution E-4293, Resolution E-4263, Resolution E-4300, and Resolution E-4295 (the “Application”). As explained below, an order shortening time to protest and respond to this Application and an expedited decision on this Application are necessary and appropriate.¹

I.

INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

The CPUC has called California’s Renewables Portfolio Standard (“RPS”) “one of the most ambitious renewable energy standards in the country.”² While the CPUC has recognized that the investor-owned utilities’ (“IOUs”) existing renewable procurement processes are working effectively,³ there are significant challenges to meeting the State’s renewable energy goals, including permitting, siting, approval, and construction of transmission and renewable generation projects; the uncertainty surrounding the federal production and investment tax credits; a heavily subscribed interconnection queue; developer performance; and lack of flexibility in the regulatory process to pursue all procurement options.⁴

Moreover, the magnitude of the 33% renewable energy goal currently being considered by the California Air Resources Board and the Legislature increases the challenges to reaching the State’s goals. The CPUC acknowledged that a 33% renewable energy goal is “highly ambitious.”⁵ Given the existing barriers to achieving the State’s aggressive renewable energy goals, it is critical to avoid additional impediments to meeting the State’s goals.

The IOUs’ renewable energy contracting makes a substantial contribution to the development of renewable resources that support the State’s renewable energy goals. The CPUC has approved 137 IOU renewable contracts for 12,211 MW from new and existing renewable facilities.⁶ SCE alone has conducted seven open, competitive calls for renewable power contracts since 2002, and has secured 61 renewable contracts with a maximum future annual power generation of 31.2 billion kWh for SCE’s customers – enough electricity to serve approximately 4.7 million average homes for a year.⁷ This achievement evidences SCE’s continued and focused desire to assist the State in achieving its renewable energy goals, and to take delivery of renewable power to meet those goals.

SCE’s ability to enter into these renewable energy contracts (many of which are long-term contracts with 10 to 20-year terms) in support of the State’s renewable energy goals is dependent on receiving CPUC approval to recover all contract payments made pursuant to such contracts in rates. Throughout the history of the RPS program, the CPUC has provided full rate recovery for renewable contract payments. In approving SCE's renewable contracts through decisions and resolutions, the CPUC has repeatedly found that payments to be made by SCE under such contracts are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the projects, subject to CPUC review of SCE's administration of the contracts.⁸ Recently, however, the CPUC's resolutions have limited SCE's rate recovery for renewable contract payments.⁹ As discussed below, these limitations on rate recovery jeopardize SCE's ability to proceed with some of the affected contracts. If the CPUC intends to apply similar limitations on rate recovery in future resolutions, such action will also undermine SCE's ability to enter into additional renewable contracts in support of the State's renewable energy goals, thus creating another impediment to achieving those goals.

This Application concerns four resolutions approving SCE renewable energy contracts. On December 21, 2009, the CPUC issued Resolution E-4293, which approves SCE's 20-year contract with Echanis, LLC for the renewable output of a 40 to 104 MW wind project to be located in Harney County, Oregon (the "Echanis Contract"); Resolution E-4263, which approves SCE's 10-year contract with Ventura Regional Sanitation District for the renewable output of a 1.57 to 5 MW landfill gas project located in Ventura County, California (the "VRSD Contract"); and Resolution E-4300, which approves SCE's two-year contract with Puget Sound Energy, Inc.

for the renewable output from a 50 MW portion of a 223.6 MW wind project located in Sherman County, Oregon (the “Puget Contract”).¹⁰ On January 26, 2010, the CPUC issued Resolution E-4295, which approves SCE’s one-year contract with Sierra SunTower, LLC for the renewable output of a 5 MW solar thermal project located in Lancaster, California (the “Sierra Contract”).¹¹ These four resolutions are collectively referred to as the “Resolutions” in this Application.

The Resolutions all include the following finding limiting rate recovery for contract payments made by SCE under these renewable contracts:

Provided the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource, or Seller is otherwise compliant with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009 and included in the terms of the PPA, payments made by SCE under the PPA are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the PPA, subject to Commission review of SCE’s administration of the PPA.¹²

Accordingly, payments made by SCE under these contracts are only recoverable in rates if the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource or if the seller is otherwise compliant with the CPUC’s non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 6 on “Eligibility,” which requires a seller to warrant throughout the contract delivery that its project qualifies and is certified by the California Energy Commission (“CEC”) as an eligible renewable energy resource and that the project’s output delivered under the contract qualifies under the requirements of the California RPS unless excused by a change in law.

As explained in further detail below, there are two problems with these limitations on rate recovery. First, while SCE believes it was the CPUC’s intent to provide SCE with rate recovery for all payments SCE is obligated to make under the contracts, because the finding links rate recovery to a Standard Term and Condition set forth in a CPUC decision rather than the specific terms of the relevant contract, it is possible that SCE could be obligated to pay the seller pursuant to the contract but may not be able to receive rate recovery for such payments. Second, the finding conditions SCE's rate recovery on actions that are in the sole control of the seller, not SCE. The seller has the responsibility for ensuring the project is an eligible renewable energy resource and for complying with Standard Term and Condition 6. SCE has the responsibility for reasonably administering the contract, including the contract terms regarding RPS eligibility, and for reasonably enforcing compliance with the seller's contractual obligations. Limiting SCE's rate recovery to situations where the seller complies with its contractual obligations inappropriately places the risk of any breach by the seller solely on SCE.

In their current form, the Resolutions jeopardize SCE's ability to proceed with some of the affected contracts and may affect SCE's ability to enter into additional renewable energy contracts. SCE needs certainty that it can recover all contract payments in rates in order to commit to renewable energy contracts in support of the State's renewable energy goals. Accordingly, consistent with its past practice, the CPUC should modify the Resolutions to ensure that SCE receives this certainty regarding rate recovery. Instead of linking SCE's ability to recover renewable contract payments in rates to the seller's compliance with a Standard Term and Condition set forth in a CPUC decision, rate recovery should be linked to SCE's reasonable administration of the specific terms of the relevant contracts.

Additionally, as detailed below, the CPUC should make other modifications to the Resolutions to clarify SCE's obligation to reasonably enforce compliance with its contracts. As written, the Resolutions incorrectly describe the parties' obligations regarding Standard Term and Condition 6 and include inconsistent language regarding SCE's obligations.

Finally, SCE's rights to terminate three of the contracts at issue in this Application will expire in the near future.¹³ Moreover, a delay in a decision on this Application could delay the construction of one of the affected projects. Accordingly, as discussed below, SCE requests an order shortening time for protests and responses to this Application and an expedited decision on this Application by no later than June 3, 2010.

II.

DISCUSSION

A. The CPUC Should Modify The Resolutions To Provide Certainty Regarding Rate Recovery

As noted above, the Resolutions include the following finding limiting rate recovery for contract payments made by SCE under the Echanis, VRSD, Puget, and Sierra Contracts:

Provided the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource, or Seller is otherwise compliant with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009 and included in the terms of the PPA, payments made by SCE under the PPA are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the PPA, subject to Commission review of SCE's administration of the PPA.¹⁴

The CPUC's non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 6 on "Eligibility," set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, states:

Seller, and, if applicable, its successors, represents and warrants that throughout the Delivery Term of this Agreement that: (i) the Project qualifies and is certified by the CEC as an Eligible Renewable Energy Resource ("ERR") as such term is defined in Public Utilities Code Section 399.12 or Section 399.16; and (ii) the Project's output delivered to Buyer qualifies under the requirements of the California Renewables Portfolio Standard. To the extent a change in law occurs after execution of this Agreement that causes this representation and warranty to be materially false or misleading, it shall not be an Event of Default if Seller has used commercially reasonable efforts to comply with such change in law.¹⁵

Therefore, under the Resolutions, rate recovery for payments made by SCE under the relevant contracts is conditioned on the generation being from an eligible renewable energy resource or the seller's compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6, which requires a seller to warrant throughout the contract delivery term that its project qualifies and is certified by the CEC as an eligible renewable energy resource and that the project's output delivered under the contract qualifies under the requirements of the California RPS unless excused by a change in law.

These limitations on rate recovery were not included in prior resolutions approving SCE's renewable energy contracts. Indeed, throughout the history of the RPS program, the CPUC has repeatedly found that payments to be made by SCE under renewable contracts are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the projects, subject to CPUC review of SCE's administration of the contracts.¹⁶ The Resolutions do not explain why the CPUC now finds it necessary to place limitations on rate recovery of renewable contract payments. For the reasons stated below, the Resolutions' limitations on SCE's rate recovery are neither necessary nor appropriate.

1. The CPUC Should Clarify That SCE May Recover All Contractually-Obligated Contract Payments In Rates

The first problem with the Resolutions' rate recovery finding is that it could lead to situations where SCE would be obligated to pay the seller pursuant to the contract but may not be able to recover all contractually-obligated payments in rates. SCE believes that it was the CPUC's intent to provide SCE with rate recovery for all payments it is obligated to make under the contracts at issue. However, the language used in the Resolutions leaves it unclear whether SCE has actually received rate recovery for all such payments.

As shown above, under the last sentence of the CPUC's non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 6, which is required in every RPS contract, it is not an event of default if a project no longer qualifies as an eligible renewable energy resource due to a change in law occurring after the execution of the contract, so long as the seller has used "commercially reasonable efforts" to comply with the change in law. Accordingly, under Standard Term and Condition 6, SCE would still be obligated to pay for deliveries under the contract if, despite the seller's commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the change in law, the generation was no longer from an eligible renewable energy resource. Therefore, it is clear that rate recovery cannot be limited to situations where “the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource,” as provided in first portion of the Resolutions’ rate recovery finding, since the CPUC’s own non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition obligates the buyer to pay for generation that is not from an eligible renewable energy resource under certain circumstances.

The Resolutions attempt to deal with this situation by providing for rate recovery when “Seller is otherwise compliant with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009 and included in the terms of the PPA.” However, this does not fix the problem because there is still uncertainty as to whether SCE has rate recovery for all of the payments it is obligated to make under the contracts at issue.

In response to seller’s concerns that they must limit their risk of contract termination due to changes in law in order for their projects to be financeable and to avoid confusion and potential disputes over the meaning of “commercially reasonable efforts” as the term is used in Standard Term and Condition 6, SCE’s CPUC-approved pro forma RPS contracts include limits on the out-of-pocket expenses that sellers are required to incur in making commercially reasonable efforts to comply with changes in law.¹⁷ Such limits on commercially reasonable efforts are included in the Echanis, VRSD, and Puget Contracts.¹⁸ These limits were approved and found to be reasonable by the CPUC in the Resolutions.

However, because the Resolutions refer to the version of Standard Term and Condition 6 set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, which does not have any express dollar limits on commercially reasonable efforts, it is not clear if the contractual dollar limits on commercially reasonable efforts set forth in the Echanis, VRSD, and Puget Contracts are incorporated into the Resolutions’ findings on rate recovery. For example, if a seller’s project was no longer an eligible renewable energy resource because of a change in law despite the seller incurring out-of-pocket expenses up to the contractual limit on commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the change in law, SCE would still be contractually obligated to continue making payments to the seller. Since it is unclear if the contractual limit on commercially reasonable efforts is included in the findings on rate recovery, however, it would not be clear whether SCE could recover those contract payments in rates.

In adopting Standard Term and Condition 6 and approving SCE's contractual limits on the commercially reasonable efforts that a seller is required to incur to comply with a change in law, the CPUC determined that sellers should not bear the entire risk of a change in law affecting RPS eligibility and placed some of this risk on the buyer. The CPUC specifically noted that it was not the CPUC's intent "to shift the change in law risk entirely onto the seller."¹⁹ However, if SCE is to take on some of this risk as the buyer, it must have certainty regarding its rate recovery for all payments it is obligated to make under its RPS contracts. The risk of a change in law is real. The Echanis Contract has a 20-year term and the VRSD Contract has a 10-year term. The law regarding RPS eligibility could change over these contract terms. Indeed, the law regarding RPS eligibility may change in the near future given that the Legislature is considering new RPS legislation.

Uncertainty regarding rate recovery jeopardizes SCE's ability to proceed with the some of the contracts approved in the Resolutions. The CPUC has already found that these contracts are consistent with the State's renewable energy goals. In fact, all of the contracts at issue will provide near-term renewable energy deliveries and several of the projects have already started delivering. The viability of these contracts should not be jeopardized by uncertainty regarding rate recovery. Furthermore, if the CPUC intends to include the same limitations on rate recovery in future resolutions on RPS contracts, this uncertainty will interfere with SCE's ability to enter into additional renewable contracts in support of the State's renewable energy goals.

¹⁹ D.07-11-025 at 16-17.

Furthermore, the Resolutions' limitations on rate recovery conflict with the CPUC's non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 1 on "CPUC Approval." The CPUC's definition of "CPUC Approval" requires "a final and non-appealable order of the CPUC, without conditions or modifications unacceptable to the Parties, or either of them, which . . . approves this Agreement in its entirety, including payments to be made by the Buyer, subject to CPUC review of the Buyer's administration of the Agreement. . . ." ²⁰ However, the Resolutions do not approve "payments to be made by the Buyer." Instead, the Resolutions only approve a limited subset of such payments. Therefore, SCE does not have "CPUC Approval" of these contracts as it has been defined by the CPUC.

As provided in SCE's proposed language below, the solution to this problem is to link rate recovery directly to terms of the relevant contract, rather than to a CPUC Standard Term and Condition in isolation of the complete terms of the contract. The CPUC should modify the Resolutions to link rate recovery to the actual terms of the relevant contracts.

2. The CPUC Should Clarify That Rate Recovery Is Conditioned On SCE's Actions, Not Actions In The Sole Control Of The Seller

The second problem with the Resolutions is that they condition SCE's rate recovery on actions that are in the sole control of the seller, and not within SCE's control. Under the Resolutions, SCE's recovery of contract payments in rates is dependent on the generation being from an eligible renewable energy resource or the seller complying with Standard Term and Condition 6. Both of these conditions are in the sole control of the seller.

The seller has the responsibility for ensuring the project is an eligible renewable energy resource and for complying with its obligations under Standard Term and Condition 6 to obtain and maintain CEC certification as an eligible renewable energy resource and to ensure that the delivered output qualifies under the requirements of the California RPS unless excused by a change in law. For example, the CEC imposes several requirements for CEC certification as an eligible renewable energy resource.²¹ If a seller violated one of those requirements notwithstanding having CEC certification, SCE may have no way of discovering such violation before contract payments are made.

SCE has the responsibility for reasonably administering its contracts, including the contract terms regarding RPS eligibility, and for reasonably enforcing compliance with the seller's contractual obligations, including bringing an action for breach of contract if appropriate. A finding that SCE may fully recover all contract payment in rates is not contrary to this obligation, especially given that rate recovery for RPS contract payments has always been subject to CPUC review of SCE's administration of the contract. However, if SCE reasonably administers a contract it should not be denied rate recovery for contract payments just because it is later determined that the seller did not comply with its obligations. Conditioning SCE's rate recovery on actions in the sole control of the seller inappropriately places the risk of any breach by the seller solely on SCE. Moreover, such condition on rate recovery is inconsistent with the intent of Assembly Bill 57 to eliminate after-the-fact reasonableness reviews.²²

Instead of conditioning rate recovery on the seller's actions, the CPUC should make the following modifications to the Resolutions:

~~Provided the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource, or Seller is otherwise compliant with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009 and included in the terms of the PPA, p~~Payments made by SCE under the PPA are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the PPA, subject to Commission review of SCE's administration of the PPA, provided SCE reasonably administers Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, as it is included in the terms of the PPA and any related terms included in the PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable efforts.²³

This modified finding ensures that SCE must reasonably administer the contract terms in order to recover contract payments in rates, including the terms related to the seller's obligations to obtain and maintain CEC certification and ensure that deliveries are RPS-eligible. Unlike the ²¹ See CEC Renewables Portfolio Standard Eligibility Guidebook (Third Edition, January 2008).

²² See Cal. Pub. Util. Code §§ 454.5(c)(3), (d)(2).

²³ These modifications should be made at Res. E-4293 at 11, 17 (Finding 10); Res. E-4263 at 8, 11 (Finding 10); Res. E-4300 at 10, 13 (Finding 13); Res. E-4295 at 10, 13 (Finding 11).

finding currently in the Resolutions, however, this finding links rate recovery to the actual terms of the contracts and avoids a situation where SCE would be obligated to make contract payments it could not recover in rates. Moreover, this finding focuses on SCE's actions in reasonably administering the contract, rather than the actions of the seller that are outside the control of SCE.

B. The CPUC Should Modify The Resolutions To Accurately Describe The Parties' Obligations

The Resolutions also include a finding stating that the immediately preceding finding that procurement pursuant to the contract is procurement from an eligible renewable energy resource, which is necessary to satisfy the CPUC's non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 1 on "CPUC Approval," shall not "absolve SCE of its obligation to enforce compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, and included in this PPA."²⁴

As with the rate recovery finding discussed above, this finding is problematic because it suggests that SCE has an obligation to enforce compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6 as it is set forth in the CPUC decision, in isolation of how the term is actually used in the relevant contract. The CPUC should clarify that SCE's obligation is to enforce the terms of the contract. Moreover, the CPUC should clarify that SCE's obligation is to reasonably enforce compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6 and any related terms as they are included in the contract. As with any contractual provision, SCE has an obligation to act reasonably to protect its customers' interests.

SCE proposes the following modifications to the finding:²⁵

The immediately preceding finding shall not be read to allow generation from a non-RPS eligible renewable energy resource under this PPA to count towards an RPS compliance obligation. Nor shall that finding absolve SCE of its obligation to reasonably enforce compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth ²⁴ Res. E-4293 at 18 (Finding 16); Res. E-4263 at 12 (Finding 12); Res. E-4300 at 14 (Finding 15); Res. E-4295 at 14 (Finding 14).

²⁵ SCE understands this finding to only apply to the immediately preceding finding in the Resolutions and not to impact the Resolutions' finding on rate recovery.

in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, ~~and as it is included in this PPA and any related terms included in this PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable efforts.~~²⁶

Similarly, language in the body of the Resolutions states that the same finding does not “absolve any contracting party of its obligation to obtain CEC certification and/or to pursue remedies for breach of contract to ensure that only RPS-eligible generation is delivered and paid for under a Commission-approved contract.”²⁷ For the same reasons, this language should be modified to maintain consistency with the finding discussed above. Additionally, the CPUC’s non-modifiable Standard Term and Condition 6 expressly contemplates situations where generation that is not RPS-eligible is delivered and paid for under a CPUC-approved contract. Therefore, this language does not accurately represent SCE’s contractual obligations.

SCE proposes the following modifications to the language:

Therefore, while we include the required finding here, this finding has never been intended, and shall not be read now, to allow the generation from a non-RPS eligible resource to count towards an RPS compliance obligation. Nor shall such a finding absolve any contracting party of its obligation to obtain CEC certification and/or to reasonably pursue remedies for breach of Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, as it is included in this PPA and any related terms included in this PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable effort~~contract to ensure that only RPS-eligible generation is delivered and paid for under a Commission approved contract.~~ Such contract enforcement activities shall be reviewed pursuant to the Commission’s authority to review the administration of such contracts.²⁸

²⁶ These modification should be made at Res. E-4293 at 18 (Finding 16); Res. E-4263 at 12 (Finding 12); Res. E-4300 at 14 (Finding 15); Res. E-4295 at 14 (Finding 14).

STATUTORY AND PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

This Section discusses the procedural requirements of Rule 16.4 of the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Moreover, since this Application is treated like an application pursuant to General Rules 7.7.2 and 7.8 of the CPUC's GO 96-B, this section also discusses the procedural requirements of Rule 2.1 and 2.2 of the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

A. This Application Is Timely

This Application is timely since it was filed within one year of the effective date of the Resolutions, which were issued on December 17, 2009 and January 26, 2010.

B. Statutory And Other Authority

SCE files this Application pursuant to General Rules 7.7.2 and 7.8 of the CPUC's GO 96-B and Rules 2.1 and 16.4 of the CPUC's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

C. Legal Name And Principal Place Of Business

The applicant is Southern California Edison Company, an electric public utility organized and existing under the laws of the State of California. The location of SCE's principal place of business is 2244 Walnut Grove Avenue, Post Office Box 800, Rosemead, California 91770.

E. Categorization, Hearings And Issues To Be Considered

1. Proposed Category

SCE proposes that this proceeding be categorized as “ratesetting” because the Echanis, VRSD, Puget, and Sierra Contracts constitute a “mechanism that . . . sets the rates” for SCE, “a specifically named utility.”²⁹ In addition, Rule 7.1(e)(2) of the CPUC’s Rules of Practice and Procedure provides that if a proceeding does not clearly fit within one of the three established categories, the proceeding generally should be conducted under the rules for ratesetting proceedings.

2. Need For Hearings

This Application contains sufficient information and constitutes a sufficient record for the CPUC to rule on this Application without the need for evidentiary hearings.

3. Proposed Schedule

SCE’s rights to terminate the Echanis, VRSD, and Puget Contracts expire in the near future. Moreover, one of the affected projects is being constructed on a seasonal construction schedule; therefore, unless a decision on this Application is issued on an expedited basis, there could be a delay in the project’s construction. Accordingly, SCE requests that the time to protest and respond to this Application be shortened to 20 days from the filing of this Application and that the time for replies to protests and responses to this Application be shortened to 5 days from the date for filing protests and responses. Additionally, SCE requests that the CPUC issue an expedited decision on this Application no later than June 3, 2010.³⁰ SCE proposes the following schedule:

Application Filed	3/9/10
Daily Calendar Notice Appears	3/11/10
Protests and Responses Due	3/29/10
Reply to Protests and Responses Due	4/5/10
Proposed Decision Mailed	4/30/10
Comments on Proposed Decision Due	5/20/10
Reply Comments Due	5/25/10
Final Decision	6/3/10

4. Issues To Be Considered

The issues to be considered are whether the CPUC should modify the Resolutions as proposed by SCE in Sections II and IV of this Application.

F. Articles Of Incorporation

A copy of SCE's Certificate of Restated Articles of Incorporation, effective on March 2, 2006, and as presently in effect, certified by the California Secretary of State, was filed with the Commission on March 14, 2006, in connection with Application No. 06-03-020, and is made a part hereof by reference.

G. Service

SCE served a copy of this Application on all parties on the service lists for SCE's Advice Letters 2359-E and 2359-E-A, 2356-E, 2388-E, and 2383-E, and Resolutions E-4293, E-4263, E-4300, and E-4295. These include the service lists for R.98-07-038, R.06-02-012, and ³⁰ SCE intends to concurrently file a Motion to Shorten Time to Protest and Respond to Application for Modification of Resolution E-4293, Resolution E-4263, Resolution E-4300, and Resolution E-4295 and for an Expedited Decision as soon as it receives an application number for this Application.

R.08-08-009. SCE also served a copy of this Application on Chief Administrative Law Judge Karen Clopton.

IV.

CONCLUSION

For all the reasons stated above, SCE respectfully requests that the CPUC grant this Application and make the following modifications to the Resolutions.

- Resolution E-4293 at 11, 17 (Finding 10); Resolution E-4263 at 8, 11 (Finding 10); Resolution E-4300 at 10, 13 (Finding 13); Resolution E-4295 at 10, 13 (Finding 11): ~~Provided the generation is from an eligible renewable energy resource, or Seller is otherwise compliant with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009 and included in the terms of the PPA, p~~Payments made by SCE under the PPA are fully recoverable in rates over the life of the PPA, subject to Commission review of SCE’s administration of the PPA, provided SCE reasonably administers Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, as it is included in the terms of the PPA and any related terms included in the PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable efforts.
- Resolution E-4293 at 18 (Finding 16); Resolution E-4263 at 12 (Finding 12); Resolution E-4300 at 14 (Finding 15); Resolution E-4295 at 14 (Finding 14): The immediately preceding finding shall not be read to allow generation from a non-RPS eligible renewable energy resource under this PPA to count towards an RPS compliance obligation. Nor shall that finding absolve SCE of its obligation to reasonably enforce compliance with Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, ~~and~~ as it is included in this PPA and any related terms included in this PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable efforts.
- Resolution E-4293 at 14; Resolution E-4263 at 9-10; Resolution E-4300 at 11; Resolution E-4295 at 12:

Therefore, while we include the required finding here, this finding has never been intended, and shall not be read now, to allow the generation from a non-RPS eligible resource to count towards an RPS compliance obligation. Nor shall such a finding absolve any contracting party of its obligation to obtain CEC certification and/or to reasonably pursue remedies for breach of Standard Term and Condition 6, set forth in Appendix A of D.08-04-009, as it is included in this PPA and any related terms included in this PPA including the definition of commercially reasonable effort~~contract to ensure that only RPS-eligible generation is delivered and paid for under a Commission-approved contract.~~ Such contract enforcement activities shall be reviewed pursuant to the Commission's authority to review the administration of such contracts.

Respectfully submitted,
