PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S (U 39 E)
PROOF OF RULE 3.2(e) COMPLIANCE

Pacific Gas and Electric Company (The Company) hereby provides proof of compliance with Rule 3.2 (e) of the California Public Utilities Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure:

Mailing of Notice to State, County, and City Officials

The Company met the requirement specified in Rule 3.2 (b) that it serve notice to State, County, and City officials within its service area within 20 days of the date of its application filing. The Company mailed Notice of its application to state, county and city officials within its service area, listed on the current Roster published by the Secretary of State, on June 12, 2012.

(See Attachment A.)

Publication

The Company met the requirement specified in Rule 3.2 (c) that it publish Notice of its application in newspapers of general circulation within its service area within 20 days of the date of its application filing. Notice of this application appeared in newspapers on June 21, 2012.

(See Attachment B.)

Mailing of Bill Insert to All Customers

The Company met the notice requirement specified in Rule 3.2 (d) by mailing a bill insert describing the rate increase associated with the above-referenced Application to affected customers within 45 days of the date of its application filing. Mailing of the insert was completed on July 17, 2012. (See Attachment C.)

In addition, customers who receive electronic bills, received this insert as part of their bill packages. Circulation of this bill insert in electronic bills began on June 29, 2012 and was completed on July 17, 2012.

Respectfully submitted,

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S 2013 ENERGY
RESOURCE RECOVERY ACCOUNT AND GENERATION NON-BYPASSABLE CHARGES
FORECAST

On June 1, 2012, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed an application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) seeking approval of a $4.412 billion electric procurement forecast, which is a $539.5 million increase compared to revenues at present rates. It is important to note that these costs represent less than half of the total costs that are reflected in customers' rates. Other costs include the day-to-day operations of the utility's business, among other things. It is also important to note that this application is simply a forecast and is likely to change before the end of 2012. PG&E will file an updated application in November 2012.

Each year, PG&E is required to file an application that forecasts how much it will cost in the following year to obtain enough electricity to serve its customers. The CPUC reviews this forecast and then PG&E includes any approved costs in the next year's electric rates. Throughout the year, PG&E tracks actual costs and revenues, which it reports to the CPUC on a monthly basis, and any difference is allocated to customers. PG&E does not profit from the costs of procuring energy on behalf of its customers.

Will rates increase as a result of this application?

Based on the current forecast, rates would increase for most customers, although impacts for individual customers may vary. Bundled customers, who receive electric generation as well as transmission and distribution service from PG&E, will see rate increases. The magnitude of the increase depends upon the outcome of Rulemaking 11-03-012; approval of PG&E's proposal to return 100 percent of the forecast auction revenue for greenhouse gas allowances in the distribution rate would reduce proposed rate changes.

PG&E will provide an illustrative allocation of the proposed rate changes among customer classes in a bill insert to be mailed to customers beginning in Mid-June.

If the CPUC approves this application, a typical bundled residential customer using 550 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month will see his or her average monthly bill change from $89.73 to $92.80, an increase of $3.07 per month. A residential customer using 550 kWh per month, which is about twice the baseline allowance, will see his or her average monthly bill change from $185.92 to $198.12, an increase of $12.20 per month. Individual customer bills may differ.

PG&E's electric procurement forecast includes the ERRA revenue requirement, which applies to bundled customers only, and revenue requirements for three non-bypassable charges (NBC), which apply to direct access (DA) and community choice aggregation (CAA) customers, who purchase their energy from a non-utility supplier, as well as departing load (DL) customers, who self-generate or receive service from a publicly owned utility. For CCA and DA customers, the NBC rate component will decrease an average of 9% with the actual change varying by customer class. For departing load customers, the NBC rate component will increase for some customers and decrease for others, depending on customer class. The total NBC revenue change for DL customers is $1,347,000, or an average 2.8% increase in the NBC rate component.

THE CPUC PROCESS

The CPUC's Division of Ratepayer Advocates (DRA) will review this application.

The DRA is an independent arm of the CPUC, created by the Legislature to represent the interests of all utility customers throughout the state and obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. The DRA has a multi-disciplinary staff with expertise in economics, finance, accounting and engineering. The DRA's views do not necessarily reflect those of the CPUC. Other parties of record will also participate.

EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

The CPUC may hold evidentiary hearings where parties of record present their proposals in testimony and are subject to cross-examination before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). These hearings are open to the public, but only those who are parties of record may present evidence or cross-examine witnesses during evidentiary hearings. Members of the public may attend, but not participate in, these hearings.

After considering all proposals and evidence presented during the hearing process, the ALJ will issue a draft decision. When the CPUC acts on this application, it may adopt all or part of PG&E's request, amend or modify it, or deny the application. The CPUC's final decision may be different from PG&E's application.

If you would like to learn how you can participate in this proceeding or if you have comments or questions, you may contact the CPUC's Public Advisor as follows:

DECLARATION OF PUBLICATION OF PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S NOTICE OF APPLICATION FILING

No. A.12-06-002

I, Barbara Wichmann declare:

I am an Account Executive employed by ARTEMIA Communications, Inc., at 2001 Union Street, Suite 495, San Francisco, CA. I am responsible for working with Marilyn Walker of Pacific Gas and Electric Company (the Company) preparing the composition of the Notification of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's 2013 Energy Resource Recovery Account And Generation Non-Bypassable Charges Forecast Application (A.12-06-002), and scheduling the earliest possible publication dates with the 55 newspapers in the Company's service territory. When Marilyn Walker of the Company contacted me concerning the need to publish the notification of filing of Application 12-06-002, I drafted the publishing schedule for the 55 newspapers (attached herewith). I faxed the attached schedule, for publication dates to Ms. Walker for approval. She notified me that the dates were acceptable, and I contacted the 55 newspapers to reserve the publication dates. I receive the proofs of publication from the 55 newspapers, within three to five weeks after publication, which I collect and then forward to Ms. Walker.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

In San Francisco California, this 28th day of June, 2012

BARBARA WICHMANN

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S 2013 ENERGY RESOURCE RECOVERY ACCOUNT AND GENERATION NON-BYPASSABLE CHARGES FORECAST

On June 1, 2012, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed an application with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) seeking approval of a $4.412 billion electric procurement forecast, which is a $539.5 million increase compared to revenues at present rates. It is important to note that these costs represent less than half of the total costs that are reflected in customers' rates. Other costs include the day-to-day operations of the utility's business, among other things. It is also important to note that this application is simply a forecast and is likely to change before the end of 2012. PG&E will file an updated application in November 2012.

Each year, PG&E is required to file an application that forecasts how much it will cost in the following year to obtain enough electricity to serve its customers. The CPUC reviews this forecast and then PG&E includes any approved costs in the next year's electric rates. Throughout the year, PG&E tracks actual costs and revenues, which it reports to the CPUC on a monthly basis, and any difference is allocated to customers. PG&E does not profit from the costs of procuring energy on behalf of its customers.

Will rates increase as a result of this application?

Based on the current forecast, rates would increase for most customers, although impacts for individual customers may vary. Bundled customers, who receive electric generation as well as transmission and distribution service from PG&E, will see rate increases. The magnitude of the increase depends upon the outcome of Rulemaking 11-03-012; approval of PG&E's proposal to return 100 percent of the forecast auction revenue for greenhouse gas allowances in the distribution rate would reduce proposed rate changes.

PG&E will provide an illustrative allocation of the proposed rate changes among customer classes in a bill insert to be mailed to customers beginning in Mid-June.

If the CPUC approves this application, a typical bundled residential customer using 550 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month will see his or her average monthly bill change from $89.73 to $92.80, an increase of $3.07 per month. A residential customer using 850 kWh per month, which is about twice the baseline allowance, will see his or her average monthly bill change from $185.92 to $198.12, an increase of $12.20 per month. Individual customer bills may differ.

PG&E's electric procurement forecast includes the ERRA revenue requirement, which applies to bundled customers only, and revenue requirements for three non-bypassable charges (NBC), which apply to direct access (DA) and community choice aggregation (CAA) customers, who purchase their energy from a non-utility supplier, as well as departing load (DL) customers, who self-generate or receive service from a publicly owned utility. For CCA and DA customers, the NBC rate component will decrease an average of 9% with the actual change varying by customer class. For departing load customers, the NBC rate component will increase for some customers and decrease for others, depending on customer class. The total NBC revenue change for DL customers is $1,347,000, or an average 2.8% increase in the NBC rate component.

THE CPUC PROCESS

The CPUC's Division of Ratepayer Advocates (DRA) will review this application.

The DRA is an independent arm of the CPUC, created by the Legislature to represent the interests of all utility customers throughout the state and obtain the lowest possible rate for service consistent with reliable and safe service levels. The DRA has a multi-disciplinary staff with expertise in economics, finance, accounting and engineering. The DRA's views do not necessarily reflect those of the CPUC. Other parties of record will also participate.

EVIDENTIARY HEARINGS

The CPUC may hold evidentiary hearings where parties of record present their proposals in testimony and are subject to cross-examination before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). These hearings are open to the public, but only those who are parties of record may present evidence or cross-examine witnesses during evidentiary hearings. Members of the public may attend, but not participate in, these hearings.

After considering all proposals and evidence presented during the hearing process, the ALJ will issue a draft decision. When the CPUC acts on this application, it may adopt all or part of PG&E's request, amend or modify it, or deny the application. The CPUC's final decision may be different from PG&E's application.

If you would like to learn how you can participate in this proceeding or if you have comments or questions, you may contact the CPUC's Public Advisor as follows:

Public Advisor's Office
505 Van Ness Avenue

NOTICE OF APPLICATION OF
 PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY'S 2013 ENERGY
 RESOURCE RECOVERY ACCOUNT AND GENERATION
 NON-BYPASSABLE CHARGES FORECAST (A.12-06-002)

On June 1, 2012, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) filed application 12-06-002 with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) seeking approval of a $4.412 billion electric procurement forecast, which is a $539.5 million increase compared to revenues at present rates. It is important to note that these costs represent less than half of the total costs that are reflected in customers' rates. Other costs include the day-to-day operations of the utility's business, among other things. It is also important to note that this application is simply a forecast and is likely to change before the end of 2012. PG&E will file an updated application in November 2012.

Each year, PG&E is required to file an application that forecasts how much it will cost in the following year to obtain enough electricity to serve its customers. The CPUC reviews this forecast and then PG&E includes any approved costs in the next year's electric rates. Throughout the year, PG&E tracks actual costs and revenues, which it reports to the CPUC on a monthly basis, and any difference is allocated to customers. PG&E does not profit from the costs of procuring energy on behalf of its customers.

Will rates increase as a result of this application?

Based on the current forecast, rates would increase for most customers, although impacts for individual customers may vary. As shown in the table below, bundled customers, who receive electric generation as well as transmission and distribution service from PG&E, will see rate increases. The magnitude of the increase depends upon the outcome of Rulemaking 11-03-012; approval of PG&E's proposal to return 100 percent of the forecast auction revenue for greenhouse gas allowances in the distribution rate would reduce proposed rate changes.

Illustrative Revenue Change—2013 ERRR Application
 (Dollars in Thousands)

Customer Class	Bundled
	Proposed Change	Percent Change
Residential	$209,922	4.1%
Small Commercial	$81,520	5.2%
Medium Commercial	$78,651	6.2%
Large Commercial	$94,795	6.6%
Streetlights	$3,058	4.4%
Standby	$3,560	6.2%
Agriculture	$49,909	5.7%
Industrial	$80,786	7.4%

If the CPUC approves this application, a typical bundled residential customer using 550 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month will see his or her average monthly bill change from $89.73 to $92.80, an increase of $3.07 per month. A residential customer using 850 kWh per month, which is about twice the baseline allowance, will see his or her average monthly bill change from $185.92 to $198.12, an increase of $12.20 per month. Individual customer bills may differ.

PG&E's electric procurement forecast includes the ERRR revenue requirement, which applies to bundled customers only, and revenue requirements for three non-bypassable charges (NBC), which apply to direct access (DA) and community
