RE: Arthur Alan Wolk vs. San Diego Gas & Electric (U902E)
Case (c) C. 11-07-007

Dear Judge Smith:

I returned to California, where I do not live, after a month's absence to find your notice of a pre-hearing conference dated the 19th of August. I had no notice of this and you folks had my address in Philadelphia, as well as my phone and fax numbers and e-mail address, but never notified me at a place where I would get it.

I have been deprived of my due process. Due process requires notice, and this was a notice to a place where you knew I would never receive it. I would ask that you reschedule this conference in Los Angeles or San Diego, where you told me it would be, or allow me to attend by phone, as you said I could do if necessary when you called me in Philadelphia.

This is the best proof about which I have been complaining. I was charged as if I lived in a house full time with a family, when I am rarely here. The new meter confirms that without any doubt.

I will not be deprived of my opportunity for a hearing, when the CPUC had all of my necessary contact information. Kindly reschedule and either email or send notice where I can get it.

Very truly yours,
