Order Instituting Rulemaking to Examine the Commission's Post-2008 Energy Efficiency Policies, Programs, Evaluation, Measurement, and Verification, and Related Issues.

Rulemaking 09-11-014
(Filed November 20, 2009)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING GRANTING MOTION FOR PARTY STATUS FILED BY THE ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH COALITION

By motion dated September 24, 2010, the Environmental Health Coalition (EHC) request that it be given party status in this proceeding. For the reasons set forth below, this ruling grants EHC's request for party status.

EHC states that it is a grassroots community organization that empowers people, organizes communities and works to build thriving and vibrant neighborhoods. EHC's work is centered in the low income, communities of color in San Diego's urban core. EHC states that it has a unique perspective and a wealth of experience to bring to this proceeding, that it intends to participate in this proceeding so as to ensure that programs serve lower income populations, and that it is committed to locally driven and focused marketing efforts that are tailored to meet the needs of the local community.

IT IS RULED that the September 24, 2010 motion for party status filed by the Environmental Health Coalition is granted. Consistent with our grant of party status, the following is added to the service list as appearing for the Environmental Health Coalition:

Nicole Capretz, Associate Director
Environmental Health Coalition
2727 Hoover Ave., Second Floor
National City, CA 91950
Telephone: 619-474-0220
E-mail: Nicole@environmentalhealth.org

Dated December 22, 2011, at San Francisco, California.
