Summary: On March 1, 2006, Bruce Foster, Senior Vice President of Southern California Edison Company (SCE), met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present were John P. Hughes, Manager of Regulatory Operations, and Russell G. Worden, Project Manager for the 2006 General Rate Case, for SCE. Written material (attached to the notice) was used. SCE's representatives stated that while the proposed decision (PD) would adjust $264 million from SCE's test year request, they would focus on some $152 million of the adjustments. SCE representatives described the need to spend on training and recruitment at levels above what may be embedded in recorded expense. Worden described the SCE employee incentive program. Hughes noted that the PD would remove approximately $27 million of incentive compensation that was authorized into rates by the 2003 general rate case decision. SCE representatives described the consequences of capital budget cuts, showing an itemized list of system equipment that would not be replaced if the PD's cuts are adopted. Worden described why the PD's adjustment associated with the Workers' Compensation reserve is wrong and unfair.
