Subject: R.14-10-010 - E-MAIL RULING re Comments on LCR and FCR Studies

To all parties in R.14-10-010:

In its recently served Notice of Availability of its Draft Local Capacity Technical Analysis and Draft Flexible Capacity Needs Assessment for 2018, the California Independent System Operator (CAISO) noted that it will not be able to file final versions of its studies by April 14, 2017, as directed by the Scoping Memo in the proceeding, but will file them no later than May 1, 2017.

As a result, while the current schedule for party comments of these studies set forth in the Scoping Memo will remain the same, the scope and content of the comments will change. Comments are still due on April 28, 2017 and May 5, 2017. Parties' April 28, 2017 comments should address the CAISO's draft LCR and FCR studies, rather than the final studies. Parties' May 5, 2017 comments should address the final LCR and FCR studies, and may also reply to other parties' April 28, 2017 comments.

THE DOCKET OFFICE SHALL FORMALLY FILE THIS RULING.
