Decision

BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Order Instituting Investigation on the Commission's own motion into the operations, practices, and conduct of Telseven, LLC, Calling 10 LLC dba California Calling 10, (U7015C), and Patrick Hines, an individual, to determine whether Telseven, Calling 10, and Patrick Hines have violated the laws, rules and regulations of this State in the provision of directory assistance services to California consumers.

Investigation 10-12-010 (Filed December 16, 2010)

ORDER EXTENDING STATUTORY DEADLINE

Summary

This decision extends the statutory deadline in this proceeding to December 16, 2013.

Background

Pub. Util. Code § 1701.2(d) provides that adjudicatory matters such as this enforcement investigation shall be resolved within 12 months after they are initiated, unless the Commission makes findings why that deadline cannot be met and issues an order extending the 12-month deadline. In this proceeding, the 12-month deadline for resolving this enforcement investigation is December 16, 2012.

The Commission on its own motion on December 16, 2010, instituted this enforcement investigation into the operations, practices, and conduct of

34984680 - 1 -

Telseven, LLC (Telseven), Calling 10 LLC dba California Calling 10 (Calling 10), and Patrick Hines, to determine whether Telseven, Calling 10, and Patrick Hines have violated the laws, rules and regulations of this State in the provision of directory assistance services to California consumers.

On June 10, 2011, a Prehearing Conference was held adopting the schedule noted in the Scoping Ruling dated June 21, 2011. Evidentiary Hearings were held starting on November 15, 2011, and the proceeding was submitted with the filing of reply briefs on May 4, 2012.

Also on May 4, 2012, the Commission's Consumer Protection and Safety Division filed a motion for official notice that respondents Teleseven, LLC, and Calling 10, LLC, had sought bankruptcy protection in the United Stated Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida effective April 20, 2012. The Commission obtained an order from that Court determining that the automatic stay is inapplicable to the Commission's proceeding or, in the alternative, granting relief from the stay, which CPSD presented for the record with a motion for official notice on October 18, 2012.

Kelley, Drye, and Warren, LLC, the law firm representing respondents Teleseven, LLC, Calling 10 LLC, and Patrick Hines, individually, filed a motion seeking to leave to withdraw as counsel of record due to nonpayment of outstanding invoices for legal services related to this proceeding.

No party objected to the motions for official notice from the Consumer Protection and Safety Division, and no party opposed the motion to withdraw from the law firm. All three motions were granted by ruling dated November 28, 2012

Under all the circumstances here, an extension of time to resolve Investigation 10-12-010 is appropriate. Accordingly, an extension of time until December 16, 2013 is warranted.

Waiver of Period

Under Rule 14.6(c)(4) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Commission may waive the otherwise applicable 30-day period for public review and comment on a decision that extends the 12-month deadline set forth in Pub. Util. Code § 1701.2(d). Under the circumstances of this investigation, it is appropriate to waive the 30-day period for public review and comment.

Assignment of Proceeding

Catherine J.K. Sandoval is the assigned Commissioner and Maribeth A. Bushey is the assigned Administrative Law Judge in this proceeding.

Findings of Fact

- 1. The enforcement investigation was instituted on December 16, 2010.
- 2. Evidentiary Hearings have been concluded and the record submitted.
- 3. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida granted the Commission's motion to find the stay inapplicable or, in the alternative, to lift the stay on September 17, 2012.
- 4. The enforcement investigation proceeding schedule can resume and is expected to result in a Presiding Officer's Decision in early 2013.

Conclusions of Law

1. Because of the current schedule of this proceeding, it will not be possible to resolve this investigation within the 12-month period provided for in Pub. Util. Code § 1701.2(d).

2. The 12-month statutory deadline should be extended until December 16, 2013.

IT IS ORDERED that the 12 month statutory deadline in this proceeding is extended to December 16, 2013.

This order is effective today.
