Open House and Demonstration of Voice Options

April 7, 2017 11 am	Silicon Valley Independent Living Center 2202 N. 1st St. San Jose, CA 95131

The CPUC, Senator Jim Beall (D-San Jose), the California Foundation for Independent Living Centers (CFILC), and the Silicon Valley Independent Living Center (SVILC) are hosting an Open House in San Jose to celebrate and give a demonstration of Voice Options, which offers iPads with speech applications at no-cost to people with speech disabilities. Voice Options is a pilot program of the CPUC associated with Assembly Bill 136 (Beall, 2011) and administrated by CFILC. The program loans iPads with speech applications to Californians who are not able to speak, or who have difficulty speaking, so they can determine if using an iPad increases their ability to communicate. At the Open House and Demonstration there will be remarks by Senator Beall, CPUC Commissioner Clifford Rechtschaffen, and SVILC. There will also be a demonstration of the iPads and apps in action by CFILC; attendees will also have the opportunity to use the iPads to see how the apps work.
