In the Matter of Restoring Internet Freedom WC Docket No. 17-108 (FCC 17-60); rel. May 23, 2017.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has issued a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) in which the FCC seeks comment on reinstating the information service classification of broadband Internet access service, reinstating the private mobile service classification of mobile broadband Internet access service, the effects on regulatory structures created by the FCC's 2015 Open Internet Order, eliminating the Internet conduct standard, and determining the need for existing Open Internet rules (or "Net Neutrality" rules, including the enhanced transparency, no blocking, and no unjust/unreasonable discrimination rules adopted in the 2015 Open Internet Order). The FCC also asks for comment on its legal authority to classify broadband Internet access service as an information service, the correct interpretation of section 706 of the 1996 Telecommunications Act, and whether section 230 of the 1996 Act gives the FCC authority to retain any rules that were adopted in the 2015 Open Internet Order. Comments are due July 17, 2017, and reply comments are due August 16, 2017. Staff seeks authority to file comments.
