CPUC TO HOLD OCTOBER 26 VOTING MEETING IN SACRAMENTO

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12, 2017 - The California Public Utilities Commission will hold its October 26 Voting Meeting in Sacramento.

WHEN: Thursday, October 26, 2017, 9:30 a.m.

WHERE: State Personnel Board Auditorium, 801 Capitol Mall, Sacramento; also available via listen-only call-in number at 1-800-857-1917, passcode 92105

WHAT: The CPUC's Commissioners will discuss and vote on proposed policies

The Voting Meeting begins with public comment, and members of the public are encouraged to attend. Those intending to make public comment can sign-up to speak in person before the meeting starts, or can sign-up online in advance at <https://ia.cpuc.ca.gov/requesttocomment/>.

The CPUC's Rules for Public Comment, the Voting Meeting Agenda, a list of items that will be held over to a different meeting, presentations, remote access, and other information will be available at www.cpuc.ca.gov/Commission_Meeting.

The CPUC typically holds Voting Meetings twice a month at its headquarters in San Francisco, but also schedules Voting Meetings in other cities throughout the state. In addition, the CPUC holds many Public Participation Hearings and other events statewide in order to reach out to consumers.

If specialized accommodations are needed to attend, such as language interpreters, please contact the CPUC's Public Advisor's Office at public.advisor@cpuc.ca.gov or toll free at 866-849-8390 at least three business days in advance.

To receive electronic updates on CPUC proceedings, sign-up for the CPUC's free subscription service at <http://subscribecpuc.cpuc.ca.gov>.

The CPUC regulates privately owned electric, natural gas, telecommunications, water, railroad, rail transit, and passenger transportation companies. The CPUC serves the public interest by protecting consumers and ensuring the provision of safe, reliable utility service and infrastructure at reasonable rates, with a commitment to environmental enhancement and a healthy California economy.
