Exhibit C

Thanks Selina, but you didn't say when the responses will be provided.

The fact that Ray is not full-time is not something new, so that wasn't unexpected. The holiday is in the middle of this week, but the responses were due last week.

Please provide me with an update on Monday, July 9, 2012.

Hi Tim,

So talked to Danilo Sanchez, and he said Ray Charvez who's leading DRA on this cost of capital proceeding was supposed to have gotten back to you regarding the data request, but looks like there was a delay since he's a "retired annuitant," i.e. not a full-time employee so he's not always here every day. And Patrick Hoglund, DRA's other team member on this is on vacation currently till Monday.

As far as I know from Dan, we will be providing responses. They're just late unfortunately. Let me know if you have any questions, but will follow up with you further on this as soon as everyone is back in the office. The holiday in the middle of the week is not helpful...

Thanks & Happy July 4th!

Selina,

I notice that the letter contains an error. The discovery was served late in the day on June 19, not on June 26. So, it's been two weeks without any response from DRA.

Mr. Charvez:

Attached is a copy of the letter mailed to you (and the service list) today.

I am hopeful DRA will respond to Great Oaks' discovery requests without the necessity for a motion to compel.
