BEFORE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Order Instituting Rulemaking to Integrate and Refine
Procurement Policies and Consider Long-Term
Procurement Plans.

Rulemaking 10-05-006
(Filed May 6, 2010)

MOTION FOR PARTY STATUS OF CAMCO INTERNATIONAL GROUP, INC.

Camco International Group, Inc. (“Camco”) respectfully moves for party status in this proceeding in accordance with Section 1.4 of the California Public Utilities Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure.

I. DESCRIPTION OF CAMCO.

Camco is the North American division of Camco International Ltd., a global developer of carbon offset projects and solutions to reduce greenhouse gas emissions with operations in the United States, the UK, China, Africa, Russia and Southeast Asia. We have been providing our clients with project development expertise, technical delivery capabilities and policy advice for over 20 years and generating offsets in North America for over 5 years. Based in Denver, Colorado, and incorporated in Delaware, Camco holds the largest number of Livestock Gas Capture/Combustion projects registered on the Climate Action Reserve and is evaluating, investing in and developing Livestock Gas Capture / Combustion projects in California and other Western States. Camco seeks to offer offsets from our emission reduction projects to regulated utilities covered under California's cap-and-trade regulation and subject to Commission jurisdiction.

II. CAMCO'S INTEREST IN THIS PROCEEDING

By this Motion for Party Status, Camco seeks party status in order to file comments on the Proposed Decision of Administrative Law Judge Peter V. Allen that are currently lodged with the Commission's Docket Office, pending a ruling granting this Motion for Party Status. Camco's comments on the Proposed Decision relate directly to potential significant impact that the issues discussed therein may have on Camco's ability to do business in California. In addition to comments, Camco contemplates possibly filing Reply Comments and otherwise participating appropriately as an active party in this proceeding. Camco's interests are not represented by any party to this proceeding, and its comments are directly relevant to the issues raised by the Proposed Decision.

III. NOTICE

Service of notices, orders, and other communications and correspondence in this proceeding should be directed to Camco's counsel at the address set forth below:

Email: liddell@energyattorney.com

IV. CONCLUSION.

Camco's participation in this proceeding will not prejudice any party and will not delay the schedule or broaden the scope of the issues in the proceeding. For the reasons stated above,

Camco respectfully requests that the Commission grant this Motion for Party Status and direct the Docket Office to accept the Comments of Camco for filing.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald C. Liddell
