ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING REQUIRING ASSISTANCE IN COMPLETING PROPOSED DECISION

This general rate case proceeding was submitted for decision on October 21, 2005. A draft principal hearing officer's proposed decision was mailed for rate tables and appendices on August 16, 2006.

This ruling directs the two principal parties having presented complete results of operations showings, California-American Water Company and the Division of Ratepayer Advocates, to provide assistance to the Commission's Water Division in preparing the figures and appendices needed to complete the attached revised draft proposed decision. Other parties are permitted, but not required, to participate to the extent Water Division finds helpful.

Water Division will forward its figures and appendices to the assigned Administrative Law Judge by October 4, 2006 and they will be reviewed for consistency with this draft proposed decision. When the Commission's internal review process is complete, the proposed decision will be filed and made available for comments as required by the Public Utilities Code Section 311(d) and Rule 77.1.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that California-American Water Company and DRA shall provide assistance to the Commission's Water Division in preparing the figures and appendices needed to complete the proposed decision. Other parties are permitted, but not required, to participate to the extent Water Division finds helpful. Water Division will forward its figures and appendices to the assigned ALJ by October 4, 2006.

Dated September 27, 2006, at San Francisco, California.
