3/20/02	R02-01-011	Order Instituting Rulemaking regarding the implementation of the suspension of direct access pursuant to Assembly Bill 1X and Decision 01-09-060
---------	------------	--

Summary: On March 15, 2002, William Booth, counsel for California Large Energy Consumers Association (CLECA) attended an all-party meeting with Cmmr. Lynch in San Francisco. Also present were parties listed on the attachment to the notice. Booth stated that CLECA members took direct access power in the 1998-2000 period but were largely returned to bundled utility service by their energy service providers (ESPs) in late 2001 and early 2001. Booth stated that some of those companies are engaged in litigation with ESPs over that action. Booth urged the Commission to adopt September 20, 2001 as a qualification date for direct access customers and to embark on a process of determining appropriate direct access exit fees. Booth stated that CLECA would not challenge the Commission's authority to levy such fees, but might, if confronted with inappropriate or unsupportable fees, challenge the manner in which the exit fees were calculated.

Summary: On March 15, 2002, John Leslie, attorney for Callaway Golf Company (Callaway), met with David Gamson and Peter Hanson, advisors to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present were Michel Rider, Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel, and Tom Macias, Vice President, Facilities Operations, for Callaway. Comments filed by Callaway were used. Rider stated that Callaway has been a direct access customer on the San Diego Gas & Electric Company's system from July 2000 to the present. Macias noted that in April 2000, Callaway entered into a one-year contract with an electric service provider (ESP) and that in April 2001, Callaway entered into a direct access agreement with a new ESP. Leslie stated that Callaway opposes ALJ's draft decision (DD) and explained that it potentially could be read to negatively affect direct access customers, such as Callaway, that have never purchased any power from the State Department of Water Resources (DWR). Leslie also stated that the DD could affect pre-July 1, 2001 direct access customers, such as Callaway, that switched ESPs after July 1, 2001. Rider explained that if the Commission were to terminate Callaway's direct access agreement, the Company's increased electricity costs would negatively affect Callaway's ability to compete. Leslie stated that Callaway supports Cmmr. Brown's alternate. Leslie noted, however, that the alternate should be modified to allow new load of direct access customers to be served under direct access to the extent such incremental load is permitted under the direct access contract. Referring to 'exit fees,' Leslie asked for clarification that the Commission will address the issue of whether customers that never have purchased power from DWR should be exempt from exit fees.

4/3/02 R02-01-011 Order Instituting Rulemaking regarding the implementation of the suspension of direct access pursuant to Assembly Bill 1X and Decision 01-09-060

Summary: LATE FILED. On March 28, 2002, Regina Birdsell, Director of the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA) met with Cmmr. Wood in San Francisco, and, on the same day, ORA analyst sent, via e-mail, to Linda Serizawa, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, a letter (attached to the notice). At the meeting with Cmmr. Wood also present were Linda Serizawa and Steve Weissman, advisors to Cmmr. Wood, and Sean Casey, analyst, and Jim Scarff, counsel, for ORA. Casey described ORA's long-standing policy favoring customer choice at the retail level. Scarff characterized the choice facing the Commission between the draft decision and the alternate as a choice between two risky options. Scarff stated that the risks to ratepayers associated with trying to terminate direct access contracts as of July of last year were greater than the risks that the Commission would be unable to impose equitable exit fees on current direct access customers. Scarff noted that the Commission's action in approving cost recovery in the Southern California Edison Company's settlement was analogous to the past cost recovery implicit in the exit fees being contemplated here. ORA explained that the Commission is better off dealing with the exit fees now.
