12/1/03 R02-06-041 Order Instituting Rulemaking to require California Natural Gas and Electric Utilities to preserve Interstate Pipeline Capacity to California.

Summary: On November 25, 2003, Joseph Karp of White & Case LLP, attorney for Calpine Corporation, Duke Energy North America, Mirant America, Inc., and Watson Cogeneration Company, had a telephone conversation with Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch. Karp stated that although the proposed decision (PD) adequately addresses most of the issues, the Commission should make three changes to the PD. Karp stated that the Commission should clarify that the utilities do not need to get additional El Paso Capacity; order a cash refund for non-core gas customers of Pacific Gas and Electric Company for amounts that these customers previously paid to PG&E; and defer TURN's strategic reserve proposal.

12/1/03 A99-03-025 Roseville Telephone Company, to review its New Regulatory Framework.

Summary: On November 25, 2003, Hallie Yacknin, Assistant General Counsel, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA), met with Cmmr. Brown in San Francisco. Also present were Robert Wullenjohn, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, Timothy Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Kennedy, Lee-Whei Tan, Regulatory Analyst, ORA, and representatives of The Utility Reform Network, Roseville Telephone Company a.k.a. SureWest (Roseville), Citizens Telephone Company, a.k.a. Frontier, and Pacific Bell Telephone Company. ORA stated that Roseville's petition to modify D01-06-077 violates Rule 47 by relying on disputed statements of fact as the basis for its petition, and that Section 1708 requires hearings to address those disputed statements of fact. In response to Roseville's suggestion that the Commission take a re-vote on the existing, submitted record, ORA stated that that would violate Rule 47 and public policy interest. ORA stated that if the Commission wishes to explore Roseville's request to suspend or eliminate sharing, it may do so in a separate proceeding.

Order Instituting Investigation into the ratemaking implications for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) pursuant to the Commission's Alternative Plan of Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for PG&E, in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, In re Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Case No. 01-30923 DM.

Summary: On December 2, 2003, Marc Joseph, attorney for the Coalition of California Utility Employees (CUE), met with Cmmr. Wood in San Francisco. Also present were Bill Julian and Manuel Ramirez, advisors to Cmmr. Wood, and Perry Zimmerman and Tom Dalzell from IBEW 1245, Mike Mowrey from the IBEW and Art Carter and Scott Wetch on behalf of CUE and IBEW 1245. Zimmerman stated the importance of a timely resolution of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's (PG&E) bankruptcy because of the ongoing impacts on employees and because of the opportunity to keep PG&E as an integrated utility that returned to generation. Joseph stated that CUE placed a very high value on re-establishing PG&E as an integrated utility. Joseph also stated that the Ninth Circuit decision still left the door open to selling PG&E's assets to pay creditors. Mowrey emphasized the importance of prompt resolution of the PG&E bankruptcy.

Summary: On December 2, 2003, Marc Joseph, attorney for the Coalition of California Utility Employees (CUE), met with Karl Bemesderfer, advisor to Cmmr. Kennedy, in San Francisco. Also present were Hunter Stern and Landis Martilla from IBEW 1245, and Art Carter and Scott Wetch on behalf of CUE and IBEW 1245. Joseph stated that delay resolving the bankruptcy would increase ratepayer costs because interest rates were likely to increase. Joseph explained that shortening the time for recovering the regulatory asset, all else being equal, would increase rates over what they otherwise would be. Joseph stated further that changing the economics of the settlement sends a bad message to Wall Street. Joseph stated further that the most important thing for ratepayers was to enable Pacific Gas and Electric Company to build and buy generation now, while prices were low and that this would provide 30 years of benefits to ratepayers.

Summary: LATE FILED. On November 25, 2003, Robert Finkelstein of The Utility Reform Network

(TURN), met with David Gamson, advisors to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present were Edward O'Neill of Davis Wright Tremaine, and Margaret Meal, on behalf of TURN. Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. TURN's representatives expressed disappointment at the short shrift the proposed decision and both alternate decisions give to the TURN proposal to finance a substantial portion of the bankruptcy plan through a dedicated rate component (DRC) rather than through a regulatory asset. TURN also pointed out that there would be no significant cost to the company – rather, use of a DRC rather than a regulatory asset would eliminate a windfall that under the settlement would have unduly enriched the company at the expense of its ratepayers. TURN discussed the dividends that PG&E would likely earn under the group's alternative financing plan, showing that they were higher than PG&E's pre-bankruptcy dividends. TURN pointed out that in the PG&E bankruptcy, the competing plans focus only on ratepayers as the source of funds necessary to return the utility to creditworthiness, and that while TURN continues to find this approach distasteful and inappropriate, it has developed a plan that achieves a return to creditworthy status, but with a price tag billions of dollars lower for PG&E's customers. TURN urged that if the Commission is to sanction a consumer-funded bailout, said bailout be achieved in a manner that is at a minimum the least-cost approach for consumers.

Summary: On December 3, 2003, Lee Schavrien, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for Southern California Gas Company and San Diego Gas & Electric Company, met with Trina Horner, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in San Francisco. Schavrien stated that the proposed decision (PD) inappropriately bifurcates the incentive component of the PBR Performance Indicators for 2004 from the indicators themselves. Schavrien explained that the justification used to extend the performance indicators applies equally to the incentive component and that both should be extended.

12/5/03 A01-10-011 Pacific Gas and Electric Company (U 39 G), Proposing a Market Structure and Rules for the Northern California Natural Gas Industry for the Period Beginning January 1, 2003 as Required by Commission Decision 01-09-016.

Summary: On December 2, 2003, Eric Eisenman, Chief, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Roosevelt Grant, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present were Belinda Gatti, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Ray Williams, Director, California Gas Transmission, PG&E. Williams stated that if the proposed decision is adopted, PG&E's California Gas Transmission unit will not be able to realize its authorized rate of return of 11.22 percent. Eisenman stated that PG&E believes that it has demonstrated that substantial benefits occurred to all market segments as a result of the Line 401 construction. Williams stated that PG&E should not be ordered to file an application dealing with the fire at the Gerber Compressor Station. In addition, Williams stated that if certain customers, who connect directly to backbone transmission, could avoid local transmission rates then the remaining core and noncore customers would see a substantial increase in their local transmission rates.

12/5/03 R01-05-047 Order instituting rulemaking on the Commission's own motion to determine whether baseline allowances for residential usage of gas and electricity should be revised.

Summary: On December 3, 2003, Lee Schavrien, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs, San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E) and Southern California Gas Company (together, the Sempra Energy Utilities (SEU)), met with Aaron Johnson, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, in San Francisco. Also present was Billy Blattner, SEU CPUC Relations Manager. Schavrien stated that SDG&E interprets AB 1 to apply to SDG&E's commodity rate. Schavrien explained that the proposed decision (PD) would move away from cost causation and could increase cost shifting for up to twenty years. Blattner added that conclusions in the PD about prior rate changes are outside the scope of this proceeding and that affected customers were not properly noticed that such changes would be considered.

12/9/03 R01-10-024 Order Instituting Rulemaking to Establish Policies and Cost Recovery Mechanisms for Generation Procurement and Renewable Resource Development.

Summary: LATE FILED. On December 1, 2003, Andrea Weller of Strategic Energy, on behalf of the Alliance for Retail Energy Markets (AREM), met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Julie Fitch, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. Also present was Mona Petrochko of Constellation Energy, on behalf of AREM. AREM representatives stated that AREM members do not oppose energy service providers (ESPs) being required to demonstrate resource adequacy, but would oppose being required to make that demonstration to the Commission. AREM representatives observed that the alternate of Cmmr. Peevey is consistent with AREM's position that any resource adequacy requirement for ESPs and other non-utility load-serving entities (LSEs) should be administered by the California Independent System Operator. AREM urged the Commission, however, to clarify in its final decision that consistent standards should be used to determine whether a power purchase agreement counts toward a LSE's reserve requirement, irrespective of whether the contracting party is the Department of Water Resources (DWR) or a utility, and ESP or other LSE. AREM also urged the Commission to clarify that for purposes of determining resource adequacy, the capacity associated with DWR contracts should be allocated to ESPs to the extent their customers pay for the costs of those contracts through Direct Access Cost Responsibility Surcharges.
