

APPENDIX 1

Appendix 1:

I.02-06-003, Ordering Paragraph 1, as modified by D.02-10-061

1. An investigation on the Commission's own motion is instituted into the operations of Cingular, and all of its subsidiaries or affiliates responsible for the conduct described above (Collectively, Respondents) to determine whether:
 - (a) Respondents violated P.U. Code § 451 by failing to provide adequate, efficient, just and reasonable service as necessary to promote the safety and convenience of its customers and the public;
 - (b) Respondents violated P.U. Code § 451 by rules pertaining to its charges and service to the public, which rules are unjust and unreasonable, defeating the reasonable expectations of the consumer;
 - (c) Respondents violated P.U. Code § 451 by failing to comply with standards (described in P.U. Code Section 2896 inter alia) that require all relevant, available, and accurate information to be provided to customers so that they can make an intelligent choice between similar services where such a choice exists;
 - (d) Respondents violated P.U. Code §§ 451 and 702 and Ordering Paragraph 1(5) of D.95-04-028 by marketing and selling bundled packages of services and goods in a way that was illegal, and therefore unjust and unreasonable, under the consumer protection laws of the State of California, including the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act (CC §§ 1792-1792.4), the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (CC §§ 1770), and Sections 2314-2316 of the California Commercial Cod;
 - (e) Respondents violated P.U. Code §§ 451 and 702 and Ordering Paragraph 1(5) of D.95-04-028 by structuring their marketing and consumer contracts for bundled cellular service in ways that violate fundamental rules of honesty and fair dealing, prevent true competition in the consumer marketplace, and thus violate the standards developed under Section 17200 et seq. and 17500 et seq. of the California Business & Professions Code and Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a);

- (f) Respondents violated P.U. Code § 2896 by failing to provide its customers with sufficient information upon which to make informed choices among wireless telecommunications services and providers, including but not limited to information regarding the provider's service options, pricing, and terms and conditions of service, and also by failing to provide reasonable statewide service quality standards.
