6/13/05	I02-04-026	Order Instituting Investigation into the ratemaking implications for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) pursuant to the Commission's Alternative Plan of Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code for PG&E, in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, In re Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Case No. 01-30923 DM.

Summary: On June 8, 2005, Eric Eisenman, Chief, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, in San Francisco. Also present were Dennis Keane, Manager, Service Analysis, PG&E, and Scott Blaising, Attorney for the California Municipal Utilities Association (CMUA). Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. Keane noted that PG&E supports the draft decision (DD) by ALJ Kenney in I02-04-026, A04-07-032, with respect to the obligations of municipal departing load for the regulatory asset and energy recovery bond charges, although PG&E did in its comments suggest a number of wording changes. Keane also noted that PG&E supports the DD by ALJ Pulsifer in R02-01-011 with one significant exception: PG&E opposes the DD's grant of CMUA's requested 'clarification' regarding new municipal departing load within the geographic region covered by PG&E's Bypass Report since this element of the DD is inconsistent with the record, is unlawful, and is bad public policy.

Summary: AUGMENTATION REQUIRED. On June 8, 2005, Scott Blaising, counsel for the California Municipal Utilities Association (CMUA), met with Amy Yip-Kikugawa, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn, Julie Fitch, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, and David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, in three separate meetings. For the part of the meeting with David Gamson, also present were Eric Eisenman and Dennis Keane of Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Written material (attached to the notice) was used. Blaising commented that the ALJ 's draft decision (DD) incorrectly addresses the issue of 'stand-alone' municipal departing load (MDL) ('load that does not otherwise require the use of transmission or distribution facilities owned by the investor-owned utility'). Blaising indicated that the DD claims that there are policy justifications for treating MDL differently than CGDL in stand-alone situations, however, there are no policy issues implicated by the stand-alone issue. Rather, Blaising observed, Public Utilities Code Section 369 provides a strict, definitional basis for determining stand-alone situations. Blaising also noted that the Commission must treat MDL and CGDL similarly. At the meeting with David Gamson, Blaising also stated that PG&E was precluded from raising, yet again, PG&E's proposal to limit new MDL exemptions for entities named in the PG&E Bypass Report.

Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. Keane noted that PG&E supports the draft decision (DD) by ALJ Kenney in I02-04-026, A04-07-032, with respect to the obligations of municipal departing load for the regulatory asset and energy recovery bond charges, although PG&E did in its comments suggest a number of wording changes. Keane also noted that PG&E supports the DD by ALJ Pulsifer in R02-01-011 with one significant exception: PG&E opposes the DD's grant of CMUA's requested 'clarification' regarding new municipal departing load within the geographic region covered by PG&E's Bypass Report since this element of the DD is inconsistent with the record, is unlawful, and is bad public policy.

6/15/05 A04-07-044 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, to revise its gas rates and tariffs to be effective July 1, 2005.

Summary: On June 10, 2005, Eric Eisenman, Chief of Regulatory Relations for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Belinda Gatti, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Amy Yip-Kikugawa, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn, in two separate meetings in San Francisco. Eisenman requested that if the final order is held at the Commission's June 16, 2005 business meeting, that language be added stating that the balancing account for non-core distribution costs be made effective July 1, 2005. During the meeting with Yip-Kikugawa, Eisenman also explained that the final order in this proceeding should permit PG&E to recover Self-Generation Incentive Program costs, and permit prospective recovery in the annual true-up advice filing. Eisenman argued that maintaining the current allocation of CARE costs is unfair to industrial customers and requested that the Commission consider alternatives to the current allocation.

Order Instituting Rulemaking to establish policies and rules to ensure reliable, long-term supplies of Natural Gas to California.

Summary: On June 10, 2005, Eric Eisenman, Manager, Regulatory Relations for Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), met with Rami Kahlon, advisor to Cmmr. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present were Larry Chaset, advisor to Cmmr. Grueneich, Belinda Gatti, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, Robert Lane, advisor to Cmmr. Bohn, and Roger Graham, Manager, Product Management, and Shaun Halverson, Manager, Gas Rates, for PG&E. Graham stated that PG&E's testimony will propose a backbone capacity guideline for its intrastate backbone transmission capacity of eighty-nine to ninety percent annual utilization, based on a cold and dry forecast of demand with a 1-in-10 year likelihood of occurring. Graham argued that an appropriate reserve margin of capacity allows the market flexibility to move purchases between receipt points, creating more gas-on-gas competition. In conclusion, Graham stated that northern California has sufficient backbone transmission and storage infrastructure, as compared to the proposed backbone capacity guideline, through 2016. Halverson stated that a full and timely recovery of investments in backbone capacity is necessary.
