

APPENDIX A

SUMMARY OF TYPES OF ADVICE LETTER AND OTHER FILINGS APPROVED IN THIS DECISION

RETAIL SERVICES OF URF CARRIERS	DETARIFFING REQUESTS OF URF CARRIERS	CHANGE BY URF CARRIERS TO DETARIFFED SERVICES
-by Tier 1 Advice Letter [Effective Pending Disposition]	- by Tier 2 Advice Letter [Effective Upon Staff Approval]	- by Information-only Filing [No Formal Approval]
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 20-day protest period • 30-day initial review period • No suspension • If no protest and no problem found in review, deemed approved at end of initial review period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 20-day protest period • 30-day initial review period • May be suspended • If no protest and no problem found in review, deemed approved at end of initial review period • Must describe the New Service so as to ensure that it is not a service that may not be detariffed. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not subject to protest • Due no later than the date that the New Service is made available to the public
- Applicable to most retail service offerings except Basic Service	- Deadline for detariffing requests within 18 months of this decision for existing services. - New Services may be detariffed after the 19 month period.
- Besides changes to existing retail service offerings, URF Carriers may introduce new services, promotional offerings, withdraw services (other than Basic Service), and submit contracts for tariffed service by Tier 1 advice letter	- May not detariff: Basic Service; 911 or e-911 service; a service not w/in scope of services for which full pricing flexibility was granted in D.06-08-030; a provision, condition, or requirement imposed by the Commission in an enforcement, complaint, or merger proceeding; a provision relating to customer direct access to or choice of an interexchange carrier; or a provision pertaining to a utility's obligations under state or federal law (such as Carrier of Last Resort obligations)

(END OF APPENDIX A)