ASSEMBLYMEMBER MIKE FEUER AND CPUC SPONSOR
FREE CONSUMER WORKSHOP ON LOWERING UTILITY COSTS

May 10, 2010 (Los Angeles) - Assemblymember Mike Feuer (D-Los Angeles) and the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) are holding a free workshop to help consumers learn about public programs and services that will save them money on their utilities, including their telephone and energy bills. Speakers will discuss state and federally mandated programs, energy efficiency and conservation programs, bill payment assistance plans, and ways consumers can avoid scams and fraud.

When: May 24, 2010, 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Where: National Council of Jewish Women
543 N. Fairfax Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90036

Who: Representatives from the CPUC, Department of Consumer Affairs, Division of Ratepayer Advocates, California LifeLine Telephone Program, Deaf and Disabled Telecommunications Program, L.A. Department of Water and Power, Southern California Edison, and AT&T.

Assemblymember Mike Feuer, Majority Policy Leader, represents California's 42nd Assembly District. He chairs the Assembly Judiciary Committee and the Assembly Select Committee on Improving State Government. For more information on Assemblymember Feuer, please visit
