All Wireless Identification Registrants are required to report revenues and pay a fee based on revenues. Under PU Code Section 405, registrants that are in default of reporting and submitting fees for a period of 30 days or more will be subject to penalties including suspension or revocation of their authority to operate in the state. The fee reporting requirements are explained at <http://www.cpuc.ca.gov/static/telco/consumer+information/userfee.htm>.

The following Wireless Identification Registrants have not reported revenues or paid fees in 2005:
