(3) The protection required under Section (1) hereof shall be evidenced by the deposit with the Public Utilities Commission, covering each vehicle used or to be used in conducting the operation of each such private carrier, of the appropriate Commission-authorized certificate of bodily injury liability and property damage liability insurance issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in the State of California, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Sections 1763 and 1765.1 of the Insurance Code, or of an original bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the State of California.

(4) The protection required under Section (2) hereof shall be evidenced by the deposit with the Public Utilities Commission, covering each vehicle used or to be used in providing transportation services incidental to operation of a youth camp, of the appropriate Commission-authorized certificate(s) of general liability insurance (and umbrella insurance), issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in the State of California, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Sections 1763 and 1765.1 of the Insurance Code.

(5) A certificate of insurance, or surety bond, evidencing such protection shall not be cancelable on less than thirty (30) days notice on an authorized form to the Public Utilities Commission, such notice to commence to run from the date notice is actually received at the office of the Commission.

(6) Every insurance certificate or surety bond shall contain a provision that such certificate or surety bond shall remain in full force and effect until cancelled in the manner provided by Section (5) of this General Order.

(7) With respect to private carriers described in Section (1), in lieu of the evidence authorized by Section (3) hereof, the carrier may file a certificate of self-insurance issued by the California Department of Motor Vehicles where the certificate evidences authority to self-insure pursuant to Vehicle Code Section 16053 in the amounts required by Section (1) of this General Order.

(8) Upon cancellation of an insurance certificate or surety bond, or the cancellation of a certificate of self-insurance issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, the registration of any private carrier or organization providing transportation services incidental to operation of a youth camp shall stand suspended immediately upon the effective date of such cancellation.

(9) The Executive Director shall suspend the registration of a private carrier of passengers or an organization providing transportation services incidental to operation of a youth camp upon determination that its certificate of insurance, surety bond, or evidence of qualification as a self-insurer has lapsed or been terminated and notify the carrier or organization of said action.

(10) The registration of any private carrier or organization providing transportation services incidental to operation of a youth camp suspended under the provisions of Section (8) or Section (9) of this General Order shall not be reinstated unless and until there is filed on behalf of such carrier a current insurance certificate(s), a surety bond, or a certificate of self-insurance issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles that is authorized by this General Order.

Approved and dated at San Francisco, California, this 17th day of December, 1998.
