Subject: I.15-08-019 (PG&E Safety Culture) - E-Mail Ruling (Corrected) Granting Extension of Time

To All Parties:

This E-Mail Ruling supersedes the prior E-Mail Ruling served on January 15, 2019. This Ruling makes no substantive changes to the prior ruling, but only clerical corrections which are highlighted for your convenience.

On January 9, 2019, The Utility Reform Network (TURN) requested an extension of the deadlines for filing comments in this proceeding. (Attached below.) TURN requests that the opening comments currently due on January 30, 2019 instead be due on February 13, 2019, and the reply comments currently due February 13, 2019 be due on February 28, 2019. TURN states that it polled the other parties, and no parties object to TURN's request for an extension of these deadlines.

TURN's Motion for Extension of Time is GRANTED. Parties are reminded that consistent with the Scoping Memo, at this stage the Commission is engaged in a preliminary vetting of concepts, and further opportunities for party comment will be available. Parties are instructed to indicate in the opening paragraph of their comments that an extension of time has been granted, pursuant to Rule 11.6.

DOCKET OFFICE SHALL FILE THIS RULING

Subject: I.15-08-019 (PG&E Safety Culture): Rule 11.6 Motion for Extension of Time

ALJ Allen:

Pursuant to Rule 11.6 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, The Utility Reform Network (TURN) respectfully submits this motion for a two-week extension in the due dates for opening and reply comments on the issues set forth in the Assigned Commissioner's Scoping Memo and Ruling (Scoping Memo), issued in this proceeding on December 21, 2018. TURN takes the issues presented in the Scoping Memo very seriously. TURN requests this extension to provide us with additional time to carefully consider these issues and prepare our initial input for the Commission's consideration.

Opening comments are currently due on Jan. 30, 2019, with reply comments due two weeks later on Feb. 13, 2019. (Scoping Memo, p. 14). TURN specifically requests an extension until Feb. 13, 2019, for opening comments. In order to preserve the 14-day period for reply comments, TURN requests an extension until Feb. 28 for reply comments, which would account for the Presidents' Day holiday on Feb. 18.

As required by Rule 11.6, TURN consulted the four other parties to this proceeding before requesting this extension. TURN has also consulted the City and County of San Francisco (CCSF), which has a pending motion for party status. The Coalition of California Utility Employees and CCSF support TURN's request. The Public Advocates Office, Office of Safety Advocates, and PG&E do not oppose TURN's request.

TURN appreciates your consideration of this request.
