Application 21-12-002

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING AFTER HEARING

A telephonic status conference was held on September 21, 2022, in Application 21-12-002.

Patrick Rosvall, Esq., Mathew Berry, Esq., and Lucy Malcolm, Esq., appeared on behalf of the applicants.

During the status conference, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued the following rulings:

1. Items that Do Not Require Filing

Within 30 days of the September 21 hearing, the applicants shall provide courtesy copies of confidential filings. Specifically, the ALJ requested courtesy copies of all prior confidential filings made under seal in this Application.¹

¹ This request is now moot, as the applicants provided this information on September 21 immediately following the hearing.

2. Items that must be filed and served

Within 30 days of the September 21 hearing, the applicants shall file with the Commission, and serve on the official Service List, the following:

a. Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Filings

The applicants shall file and serve copies of the FCC's approval of the transaction at issue in this Application. The applicants' filing shall also include copies of any orders, rulings, requests, etc., issued by the FCC regarding the transaction at issue in this Application. The FCC information may be attached as an exhibit to the additional briefing discussed below, but, if filed separately, it should be titled "Response to ALJ Inquiry."

b. Additional Briefing

As discussed in detail during the hearing, the applicants shall file and serve an additional brief. The brief shall fully address the three issues that, per the Assigned Commissioner's Scoping Memo and Ruling, are to be determined or otherwise considered in this proceeding. The brief may function as a single, organized compilation of all pleadings previously filed in this proceeding, including the Application itself, amendments or supplements to the record, exhibits, etc. When citing to exhibits, the applicants shall include cites to specific page numbers. The additional briefing, when filed with the Commission, should be titled "Additional Briefing in Response to ALJ Inquiry," otherwise a new protest period may be triggered.

IT IS SO RULED.

Dated September 23, 2022, at Sacramento, California.
