Subject: R.22-07-005 (Demand Flexibility): Track B Ruling Directing SCE and PG&E to Provide Additional Pilot Budget Information

Parties to R.22-07-005:

This ruling directs Southern California Edison Company (SCE) and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) to provide additional expanded pilot budget information described below by October 13, 2023. This ruling also provides additional opportunities for party comments.

Directions for SCE and PG&E

SCE provided insufficient information about its proposed budget for an expanded demand flexibility pilot in its comments filed on September 25, 2023. SCE shall file a detailed budget proposal with explanations of each line-item by October 13, 2023. SCE shall also serve its work papers relating to such budget proposal to the service list by October 13, 2023.

PG&E provided proposed pilot budgets in opening comments jointly filed with Polaris Energy Services, Gridtractor Inc., and GridX, Inc. on September 25, 2023. Parties will need additional information to assess this budget proposal. PG&E shall serve its work papers relating to the proposed pilot budgets to the service list by October 13, 2023. If desired, PG&E (on its own or jointly with other parties) may also file additional information about its proposed pilot budgets by October 13, 2023.

Opportunities for Party Comments

Community choice aggregators that proposed budgets for expanded pilots may file detailed budget proposals with explanations of each line item by October 13, 2023.

Reply comments on the expanded pilots issue remain due on October 9, 2023.

All parties may file comments on the additional pilot budget information and/or respond to reply comments on the expanded pilots by October 25, 2023.

The Commission's Docket Office shall file this ruling.
