Subject: Rulemaking 22-08-008: Email Ruling Granting Motions of Sonic and ACLP (1 of 3 due to size of service list)

To the service list of Rulemaking (R.)22-08-008:

This ruling grants the motions filed in R.22-08-008 by Sonic Telecom, LLC (Sonic) on October 22, 2024 and by Advanced Communications Law & Policy Institute at New York Law School (ACLP) on October 18, 2024.

On October 22, 2024, Sonic filed a motion for party status, stating it holds full facilities-based operating authority as a telecommunications carrier in California and seeks to clarify the impact of the proposed regulatory framework for interconnected Voice Over Internet Protocol services decision on its services and operations. Rule 1.4 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (Rules) require entities requesting party status disclose the persons or entities in whose behalf the request is made, the interest of such persons or entities in the proceeding, and the factual and legal contentions that the entity intends to make.

On October 18, 2024, ACLP filed a motion to accept its reply comments on the proposed decision pending in R.22-08-008, stating it had served reply comments by the established deadline of October 15, 2024 however the reply comments were rejected for filing due to ACLP's inadvertent failure to seek and obtain party status in R.22-08-008. ACLP has since sought and been granted party status in R.22-08-008 by ALJ Ruling issued October 18, 2024. As reply comments were timely served on the service list of this proceeding, no party will be prejudiced by granting ACLP's motion to accept its late-filed reply comments on the proposed decision in this proceeding.

Good cause shown, the ACLP is granted permission to file the reply comments served to the service list of this proceeding on October 15, 2024 no later than October 28, 2024. When making its filing, ACLP shall reference the grant of permission given by today's ruling.

SO RULED.

The Docket Office Shall Formally File This Ruling.
