Subject: R.24-01-018 and A.21-06-021: Ruling setting October 21, 2024 deadline for responses to PG&E's October 4, 2024 Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps

To the Service Lists of R.24-01-018 and A.21-06-021:

This email ruling addresses the October 14, 2024, request submitted by Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) asking the Commission to provide additional time for parties to file responses to PG&E's October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps (Motion). PG&E's Motion is under consideration in Rulemaking (R.) 24-01-018.

The deadline for party responses is hereby set as Monday, October 21, 2024.

Public Utilities Code (Pub. Util. Code) §937 directs the Commission to address PG&E's request within 180 days of its filing, to ensure its ratemaking mechanism meets statutory requirements. Although the ratemaking mechanism was created in Decision 24-07-008, PG&E is seeking a modification to its cost caps, which requires further Commission consideration under Pub. Util. Code §937(b). It is our intent to provide parties additional opportunities to further develop the procedural record prior to issuing a final decision on the Motion. The schedule for the ratesetting track of R.24-01-018 will be decided by the Assigned Commissioner, President Alice Reynolds, and adopted in a forthcoming Amended Scoping Memo.

IT IS RULED that

1. No later than October 21, 2024, parties may file and serve responses to Pacific Gas and Electric Company's October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps pursuant to Rule 11.1(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.
2. No later than October 31, 2024, Pacific Gas and Electric Company may file and serve a reply to party responses to its October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps pursuant to Rule 11.1(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.

Subject: R.24-01-018 and A.21-06-021: Ruling setting October 21, 2024 deadline for responses to PG&E's October 4, 2024 Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps

To the Service Lists of R.24-01-018 and A.21-06-021:

This email ruling addresses the October 14, 2024, request submitted by Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) asking the Commission to provide additional time for parties to file responses to PG&E's October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps (Motion). PG&E's Motion is under consideration in Rulemaking (R.) 24-01-018.

The deadline for party responses is hereby set as Monday, October 21, 2024.

Public Utilities Code (Pub. Util. Code) §937 directs the Commission to address PG&E's request within 180 days of its filing, to ensure its ratemaking mechanism meets statutory requirements. Although the ratemaking mechanism was created in Decision 24-07-008, PG&E is seeking a modification to its cost caps, which requires further Commission consideration under Pub. Util. Code §937(b).

It is our intent to provide parties additional opportunities to further develop the procedural record prior to issuing a final on the Motion. The schedule for the ratesetting track of R.24-01-018 will be decided by the Assigned Commissioner, President Alice Reynolds, and adopted in a forthcoming Amended Scoping Memo.

IT IS RULED that

1. No later than October 21, 2024, parties may file and serve responses to Pacific Gas and Electric Company's October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps pursuant to Rule 11.1(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.
2. No later than October 31, 2024, Pacific Gas and Electric Company may file and serve a reply to party responses to its October 4, 2024, Motion to Revise 2025 and 2026 Energization Cost Caps pursuant to Rule 11.1(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

The Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.
