JOINT STATUS CONFERENCE STATEMENT

Prior to the status conference, the parties must meet and confer. Defendant must prepare, file, and serve a Joint Status Conference Statement on behalf of the parties by no later than November 11, 2025.

The Joint Status Conference Statement must identify, describe, and/or otherwise include the agreed and disputed positions of the parties on the following matters:

The need for an evidentiary hearing:

- a. The status of settlement discussions, need for additional discussion, and likelihood of settlement of material, scoped issues;
- b. Whether the parties stipulate to the receipt of prepared testimony into evidence without direct or cross examination;
- c. Identification of factual issues that the parties believe could be addressed through stipulation or additional written testimony instead of through an evidentiary hearing;
- d. The parties' positions on the value of continued participation in the Commission's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Program.

Party resources and readiness for an evidentiary hearing:

- a. A list of contested and material factual issues in the proceeding scope to be addressed through an evidentiary hearing;
- b. A Preliminary Proposed Combined Exhibit List;
- c. A Preliminary Proposed Combined Witness List;
- d. All matters settled by the parties, including preliminary identification of the following:

- i. A Joint Statement of Stipulated Material Facts with supporting citations to the parties' prepared testimonies and/or other record evidence;
 - ii. Evidentiary stipulations regarding admission of exhibits without objection;
 - iii. Stipulations, if any, to the qualifications of one or more proposed witnesses; and/or
 - iv. Stipulations to waive cross examination of proposed witnesses offering written testimony;
- e. Anticipated evidence disputes and motions in limine;
- f. Each party's estimate of evidentiary hearing hours needed, including cross-examination time per proposed witness and the order of witnesses addressing material disputed factual issues in the proceeding scope (as identified the proceeding's Scoping Memo and Ruling);
- g. A proposed plan to handle confidential evidence;
- h. Each party's availability on December 18 and 19, 2025 and in January 2026 for the in-person evidentiary hearing at Commission Headquarters in San Francisco, California; and
- i. Other relevant matters.

TRANSCRIPT REQUESTS

Parties desiring daily transcripts should advise the Chief Hearing Reporter at reporting@cpuc.ca.gov, no later than three days prior to the first day of hearing.

IT IS SO RULED.

The Docket Office Shall Formally File this Email Ruling.
