Subject: R.25-06-019: Email ruling granting Redwood Coast Energy Authority Motion to Accept Late-Filed Response on Load Forecast

Dear Parties to R.25-06-019 (most recent integrated resources planning rulemaking):

This email ruling grants the October 3, 2025 Motion (Motion) of Redwood Coast Energy Authority (RCEA) to Accept Late-Filed Response to Administrative Law Judge's Ruling (ALJ Ruling) Establishing Process for Finalizing Load Forecasts and Greenhouse Gas Emissions Benchmarks for Individual Integrated Resource Plan Filings.

In its Motion, RCEA explains that it submitted the required information to Commission staff in Energy Division, but failed to file and serve its updated load forecast information in this proceeding by the September 12, 2025 deadline in the ALJ Ruling. RCEA also explains that it has taken steps to avoid such oversights in the future. Because Commission staff had access to the required information in order to finalize the load forecasts, I will grant the RCEA Motion and remind RCEA to avoid this situation in the future.

Therefore, IT IS RULED that:

- The October 3, 2025 Motion of Redwood Coast Energy Authority to Accept Late-Filed Response to Administrative Law Judge's Ruling Establishing Process for Finalizing Load Forecasts and Greenhouse Gas Emissions Benchmarks for Individual Integrated Resource Plan Filings is granted.

The Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.
