ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING GRANTING THE STATE WATER RESOURCES CONTROL BOARD'S REQUEST TO CHANGE PARTY STATUS TO NON-PARTY AND TO BE ADDED TO THE SERVICE LIST AS INFORMATION ONLY

On August 5, 2026, the State Water Resources Control Board (Water Boards) requested a party status change from official party to non-party, and to be added to the service list as information only. The Dolores Huerta Foundation, Clean Water Action, National Chavez Center, the Commission's Public Advocate Office (Cal Advocates), and Union Pacific Railroad Company (together Parties) did not object to the Water Boards' request. Therefore, the Water Boards' request to change party status from official party to non-party is granted. Should the Water Boards decide to become more active in this case in the future as a party, they may request party status pursuant to Rule 1.4.

IT IS RULED that:

The State Water Resources Control Board's party status is changed from official party to non-party, and the State Water Resources Control Board will be added to the service list as information only.

Dated August 25, 2026, at San Francisco, California.
