Subject: Email Ruling PG&E ERRa - A2606007 - Meet and Confer Rule 13.9

Email ruling regarding Rule 13.9 duty to meet and confer - Application of Pacific Gas and Electric Company for Adoption of Electric Revenue Requirements and Rates Associated with its 2027 Energy Resource Recovery Account (ERRA), Generation Non-Bypassable Charges Forecast, and Greenhouse Gas Forecast Revenue Return and Reconciliation, A.26-05-007.

Parties interested in the above-captioned matter: please review Commission Rule 13.9 which requires a meet and confer session after rebuttal testimony is submitted, which occurred in this proceeding on September 17, 2026, and take all steps outlined therein.

(a) Unless the assigned Commissioner or assigned Administrative Law Judge orders otherwise, no later than 10 calendar days after the submission of rebuttal testimony the parties must meet and confer, in person or via remote participation to consider the following:

- (1) Identifying and, if possible, informally resolving any anticipated motions;
 - (2) Identifying the facts and issues in the case that are uncontested and may be the subject of stipulation;
 - (3) Identifying the facts and issues in the case that are in dispute;
 - (4) Determining whether the contested issues in the case can be narrowed; and
 - (5) Determining whether settlement is possible.
- (b) Notice of the date, time, and place shall be served on all parties in advance of the meet and confer, unless all parties stipulate to waive the need for service. Parties shall notice the service list after the meet and confer has been held.

The status conference listed in the August 3, 2026 Scoping Memo (at page 6) for September 22, 2026 will not take place, as the meet and confer requirement shall take place instead of a status conference. Scoping Memo:
