Subject: A.24-09-014 Email Ruling Granting PG&E's Request To Extend Time to Develop Workpapers in the Dynamic Rates Track

To the Service List of A.24-09-014:

This ruling grants Pacific Gas and Electric Company's (PG&E) request for an extension of time to submit revised workpapers supporting the Stop-Gap Interim RTP Pilot Extension Proposal.

In its email below, PG&E requests a 30-day extension to submit the revised workpapers required by the ruling, dated September 24, 2026. Having considered PG&E's request and its consultation with the Energy Division, the request for additional time to prepare the revised workpapers is granted.

Accordingly, the deadline for submitting the revised workpapers is extended from October 16, 2026, to November 16, 2026.

IT IS SO RULED.

The Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] A.24-09-014, PG&E's Request To Extend Time to Develop Workpapers in the Dynamic Rates Track

Your Honor,

On September 24, 2026 you issued the Ruling Directing Pacific Gas and Electric Company to Submit Revised Workpapers. In this ruling, Your Honor listed a number of modifications to be made to PG&E's workpapers supporting the Stop-Gap Interim RTP Pilot Extension Proposal. Further, the Ruling provided a contact to reach out to in the Commission's Energy Division should PG&E need additional clarification. On September 30, 2026, PG&E met with Energy Division to discuss the Ruling and challenges in providing the workpapers. After the discussion, PG&E and Energy Division agreed to a 30 day extension in providing the modified workpapers.

As such, PG&E is requesting a 30 calendar day extension to the Ruling's listed due date of October 16, 2026, making the new due date November 16, 2026.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of Chris McRoberts (Chris.McRoberts@pge.com).

Kind Regards,

Jenna Velega
