Subject: A.26-02-002, Email Ruling Granting Motion To Accept Late-Filed Response and Instructions for Prehearing Conference

The November 10, 2026 Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) ruling ordered Fireline Communications, LLC (Applicant) to respond to the ALJ's questions by November 18, 2026. Applicant tendered the response for filing on November 18, 2026, after the 5:00 p.m. deadline. Per Rule 1.15 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, items tendered for filing after 5:00 p.m. is deemed to have been performed on the next day. As such, Applicant's response was deemed to have been tendered the day after the filing deadline.

On November 20, 2026, Applicant requested permission to late-file the response to the ALJ's questions. For good cause shown, Applicant is granted permission to late-file the response.

As noted by the November 10, 2026 Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) ruling and at the time of this ruling, only Mark Lammert appears on the service list for Applicant as a representative. No other person affiliated with Applicant appears as a representative or "Information-Only." Any person seeking to represent Applicant, other than Mr. Lammert, at the November 30, 2026, prehearing conference must be on the service list and file a notice of appearance.

The Process Office maintains service lists for formal proceedings. For questions about service lists, contact ProcessOffice@cpuc.ca.gov or (415) 703-2021

It is so ruled.
