Resolution WSEB-1. This Resolution adopts a citation program for enforcing compliance with the Commission's Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) guidelines.

SUMMARY

This Resolution approves a citation program to be administered by the Commission Staff (Staff), as designated by the Commission's Executive Director, to enforce electric investor-owned utility (IOU or utility) compliance with the Commission's Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) Guidelines. The Commission's PSPS Guidelines are comprised of resolutions and decisions regulating the IOUs' implementation of PSPS, including: Resolution ESRB-8,<sup>1</sup> Decision (D.) 19-05-042, D.20-05-051, D.21-06-034, and D.21-06-014.<sup>2</sup>

The scope of this Resolution and PSPS Citation Program is limited to establishing fines for certain violations of the PSPS Guidelines. As we stated in D.21-06-034, the Commission's Safety Enforcement Division (SED) staff reviews each IOU's compliance with the PSPS Guidelines and evaluates the utilities' implementation of PSPS. This PSPS Citation Program is established consistent with such authority and does not diminish or affect Staff's or the Commission's authority to utilize other enforcement activities pursuant to the Commission's Enforcement Policy,<sup>3</sup> or the Commission's authority to review the reasonableness of a utility's decision to initiate a PSPS event (i.e., a utility's decision to shut off power).

This PSPS Citation Program<sup>4</sup> will apply to all IOUs. We delegate authority to Staff to draft and issue citations to levy fines for specific violations as set forth in this PSPS Citation Program. Nothing in this Resolution diminishes, alters, or reduces the Commission's authority to regulate PSPS.

BACKGROUND

Electric investor-owned utilities that use preemptive power shutoffs as a measure of last resort to mitigate catastrophic wildfire risks must do so in a manner consistent with their statutory obligations under Public Utilities Code<sup>5</sup> section 451<sup>6</sup> and 399.2 and related orders of the Commission. Since 2008 the Commission has developed a comprehensive policy framework to regulate the IOU use and implementation of PSPS and has enforced those rules.

In 2008, the Commission expressly recognized the authority of San Diego Gas & Electric Co. (SDG&E) under Public Utilities Code sections 451 and 399.2(a)<sup>7</sup> to shut off power when necessary to protect public safety.<sup>8</sup> The Commission also recognized that de-energization can leave communities and essential facilities without power, which brings its own risks and hardships, particularly for

Furnish and maintain such adequate, efficient, just and reasonable service, instrumentalities, equipment and facilities, ... as are necessary to promote the safety, health, comfort, and convenience of its patrons, employees, and the public.

- (1) It is the policy of this state, and the intent of the Legislature, to reaffirm that each electrical corporation shall continue to operate its electric distribution grid in its service territory and shall do so in a safe, reliable, efficient, and cost-effective manner.
- (2) In furtherance of this policy, it is the intent of the Legislature that each electrical corporation shall continue to be responsible for operating its own electric distribution grid including, but not limited to, owning, controlling, operating, managing, maintaining, planning, engineering, designing, and constructing its own electric distribution grid, emergency response and restoration, service connections, service turnons and turnoffs, and service inquiries relating to the operation of its electric distribution grid, subject to the commission's authority.

vulnerable communities and individuals.<sup>9</sup> Although the Commission denied SDG&E's application to shut off power during periods of high fire danger, it directed SDG&E to collaborate with relevant stakeholders to develop a comprehensive fire-prevention plan based on a cost-benefit analysis that demonstrates (A) the program will likely result in a net reduction in wildfire ignitions, and (B) the benefits of the program outweigh any costs, burdens, or risks the program imposes on customers and communities.<sup>10</sup> The Commission further asserted its authority to review any decision by SDG&E to shut off power for reasonableness, and whether it qualifies for exemption from liability under Tariff Rule 14.<sup>11</sup>

In 2012, the Commission modified its 2009 decision to require SDG&E to provide advanced notice and mitigation to customers, to the extent feasible and appropriate, whenever SDG&E shuts off power for public-safety reasons.<sup>12</sup> Notably, the Commission declined to establish a minimum windspeed threshold below which SDG&E would be prohibited from shutting off power.<sup>13</sup> Instead, the Commission left de-energization decision-making to SDG&E's discretion as it has the detailed knowledge of its facilities necessary to make this decision in real time given contemporaneous weather conditions.<sup>14</sup> But it advised SDG&E "should shut-off power only as a last resort."<sup>15</sup> The Commission also articulated factors it would consider to assess the reasonableness of SDG&E's decision to shut off power.<sup>16</sup>

In July 2018, the Commission adopted Resolution ESRB-8, extending the PSPS guidelines applied to SDG&E to all California IOUs and strengthening those requirements.<sup>17</sup> The extended and strengthened requirements focused on: (1) public reporting, (2) public noticing, (3) other mitigating effects of de-energization, (4) and factors that would guide the Commission in undertaking a reasonableness review of an IOU's de-energization decision-making.<sup>18</sup> The Commission again recognized the statutory authority of the IOUs to de-energize electric facilities when necessary for public safety, acknowledging that such decision-making is complex and dependent on many factors.<sup>19</sup>

Later in 2018, the Commission opened an Order Instituting Rulemaking<sup>20</sup> to consider refining the policies established by Resolution ESRB-8.<sup>21</sup> Orders issued from this rulemaking have continued to develop the Commission's regulation of PSPS consistent with the utilities' obligation to protect public safety.<sup>22</sup> The rulemaking has culminated in decisions establishing three phased sets of guidelines, expanding and refining the existing reporting, noticing and mitigation requirements.<sup>23</sup>

In response to the three large IOUs' implementation of PSPS events in late 2019, the Commission opened two proceedings and ultimately found that those PSPS events were improperly implemented. First, it opened an Order Instituting Investigation (OII) to explore implementation problems from a ratemaking perspective.<sup>24</sup> This culminated in a decision that established certain corrective actions applicable to those utilities, including additional reporting and mitigation requirements.<sup>25</sup> The Commission also opened an Order to Show Cause (OSC) within R.18-12-005 that culminated in a Presiding Officer's Decision penalizing PG&E approximately $106 million for its 2019 PSPS failures.<sup>26</sup>

In June 2022, SED proposed Administrative Enforcement Orders (AEOs) pursuant to Resolution M-4846 citing PG&E, SCE, SDG&E and PacifiCorp for alleged failures associated with their implementation of PSPS in 2020. PacifiCorp and SDG&E's uncontested AEOs culminated in Resolution M-4862 fining SDG&E $24,000 and M-4863 requiring corrective actions by PacifiCorp. PG&E and SCE requested hearings to contest the respective $12 million and $10 million fines proposed to be levied against them.<sup>27</sup> On June 14, 2023, the Commission issued Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Resolution 440 approving SCE and SED's settlement resolving its AEO for $7 million. On October 14, 2022, PG&E and SED proposed a settlement to resolve its AEO for $8 million but the AEO is unresolved as of this writing.

DISCUSSION

The Commission has utilized an array of tools to enforce compliance with the PSPS Guidelines, including an OII, OSC and Administrative Enforcement Orders (AEOs). A citation program will complement these efforts and equip the Commission's SED Staff, acting on delegated authority, with a useful tool to timely ensure compliance with and deter violations of the PSPS Guidelines. The Commission has authority to establish such a tool.

1. Legal Authority to Establish Citation Program.

The Commission's jurisdiction to create citation programs is well-established, and it has adopted citation programs in many areas.<sup>28</sup> The Commission has broad regulatory authority, as set forth in Article XII of the California

Constitution<sup>29</sup> and Public Utilities Code sections 701,<sup>30</sup> 702<sup>31</sup> and 2101.<sup>32</sup> Section 7 allows the Commission to delegate certain tasks to Commission Staff,<sup>33</sup> including the investigation of facts preliminary to agency action and the assessment of specific penalties for certain types of violations.<sup>34</sup> The primary purpose of an effective enforcement program should be to deter utility misbehavior or illegal conduct, ensuring in part that the public it serves are protected from the inherent hazards of providing utility services.<sup>35</sup>

Over the last several years the Commission has leveraged this authority in numerous areas, including household good movers; charter party carriers; passenger stage corporations; maintenance and operation of power plants;

<sup>29</sup> The California Supreme Court described the Commission as a state agency authorized by the California Constitution with far reaching duties, functions and powers, and conferred with broad authority to fix rates, establish rules, hold various types of hearings, award reparation, and establish its own procedures. Consumers Lobby Against Monopolies v. Public Utilities Commission (1979) 25 Cal.3d 891, 905-906; Cal. Const., art. XII, §§ 1-6.

... supervise and regulate every public utility in the State . . . and do all things, whether specifically designated in [the Public Utilities Act] or in addition thereto, which are necessary and convenient in the exercise of such power and jurisdiction.

Every public utility shall obey and comply with every order, decision, direction, or rule made or prescribed by the commission in the matters specified in this part, or any other matter in any way relating to or affecting its business as a public utility, and shall do everything necessary or proper to secure compliance therewith by all of its officers, agents, and employees.

... to see that the provisions of the Constitution and statutes of this State affecting public utilities, the enforcement of which is not specifically vested in some other officer or tribunal, are enforced and obeyed, and that the violations thereof are promptly prosecuted and penalties due the state therefor recovered and collected . . . .

<sup>33</sup> The term “Staff” refers to the portion of the Commission’s staff designated by the Executive Director to carry out the particular function involved.

Whenever a power is granted to, or a duty is imposed upon, a public officer, the power may be exercised or the duty may be performed by a deputy of the officer or by a person authorized, pursuant to law, by the officer, unless this code expressly provides otherwise.

slamming by telecommunications providers; and compliance with resource adequacy requirements for electric power.<sup>36</sup> This proposed resolution is consistent with these other approved citation programs.

2. PSPS Citation Program Considerations.

Establishment of a citation program is desirable for many reasons. First it establishes a tool that the Commission may use when appropriate to swiftly cite the utilities for lack of compliance with the PSPS Guidelines through delegated authority to Staff. The PSPS Citation Program will help to encourage complete and timely compliance with the PSPS Guidelines and deter violations. The citation program will also ascribe clear penalties for those infractions. For these reasons, a citation program will help to clarify expectations around enforcement.

The issuance of a citation for a specified violation is not mandatory. Rather, the Commission may initiate formal proceedings or pursue any other remedy authorized by the California Constitution, the Public Utilities Code, other state or federal statutes, court decisions or decrees, or otherwise by law or in equity. The Commission's enforcement of PSPS Guidelines pursuant to this resolution by informal proceedings, formal proceedings, or otherwise, does not bar or affect the remedies otherwise lawfully available to other persons or government agencies.

The PSPS Citation Program does not cover all violations of the PSPS Guidelines that may occur, nor is it intended to. Nothing in this resolution diminishes, alters, or reduces the Commission's authority over PSPS events, including the Commission's discretion to determine the reasonableness of a utility's decision to shut off power or its implementation efforts.

The Commission has declined to adopt rigid thresholds to dictate when utilities must proactively shut off power. Instead, we defer to IOUs to determine when to shut off power, and have established factors we may consider to assess the reasonableness of a utility's de-energization decision-making.<sup>37</sup> Accordingly, this citation program does not adopt penalties associated solely with a utility's decision to call a PSPS event.

We have distinguished the difference between a utility's reasonableness in calling a PSPS event from a utility's reasonableness in implementing a PSPS event.<sup>38</sup> Pursuant to the PSPS Guidelines, a utility's proper implementation of a PSPS event includes mitigating the harmful effects of PSPS by reporting about these events, providing timely public notices (especially to sensitive populations), maintaining community resource centers, and providing PSPS information online. The utilities' past implementation failures have involved these themes, and so we include them here within the PSPS Citation Program to equip Staff with tools to address similar future implementation failures.

We acknowledge the obstacles to establishing a broad PSPS citation program considering the subjective and deferential nature of the current PSPS Guidelines. Some criteria contained within the current PSPS Guidelines contain inherent subjectivity. For example, the standard echoed throughout the Commission's decision establishing Phase 1 PSPS Guidelines is that noticing should occur "whenever possible."<sup>39</sup> However, we find sufficiently objective criteria in the PSPS Guidelines to delegate Staff the authority to penalize utilities through citations for certain PSPS implementation failures. The failure to timely file a PSPS report or to include the necessary reporting information can be objectively measured and is included in the citation program. There are other PSPS mitigation measures that the utilities are required to undertake, and that can be objectively measured. Among those included in this citation program are the failure to properly operate a Community Resource Center (CRC) and the failure to maintain a utility's PSPS website as required. Although PSPS noticing is required "whenever possible," we find that missing a notice is an objective fact and delegate to Commission Staff the discretion to determine whether to pursue and calculate an appropriate penalty according to the Scheduled Fines under the PSPS Citation Program for missed notices, where Staff determines noticing was possible based on the utilities' post-event reporting.

3. Assessment of Penalties.

Utilities that violate the rules covered by this resolution may be subject to penalties. The penalty provisions available to the Commission include those in sections 2106,<sup>40</sup> 2107,<sup>41</sup> and 2108.<sup>42</sup> Each citation, which might constitute multiple offenses, may not exceed $8 million.<sup>43</sup> The Commission articulated its criteria to assess penalties for violations of Commission rules in D.98-12-075, and restated these factors in its Enforcement Policy, adopted in Resolution M-4846.<sup>44</sup> These criteria are as follows: severity of the offense, conduct of the utility, financial resources of the utility, totality of circumstances in furtherance of public interest, and the amount of the fine in relationship to prior Commission decisions.<sup>45</sup> The Commission considered these criteria when establishing the penalty structure for this PSPS Citation Program.

A. Severity of the Offense.

This criterion considers the physical and economic harms of the offenses, harm to the regulatory process, and the number of people affected by the offense.

The Commission has addressed the critical importance of the timeliness and substance of PSPS reporting. In D.19-05-042, the Commission described reporting as “imperative” and stated it “views post-event reporting as a means of facilitating learning and improvement across utilities, state and local public

<sup>40</sup> Section 2106 allows the Commission broad authority to impose penalties on any public utility that “fails or neglects to comply with any part or provision of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission.”

Any public utility that . . . fails or neglects to comply with any part or provision of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, in a case in which a penalty has not otherwise been provided, is subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) for each offense.

Every violation of the provisions of this part or of any part of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, by any corporation or person is a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation each day’s continuance thereof shall be a separate and distinct offense.

safety agencies and local jurisdictions.”<sup>46</sup> In D.21-06-014 the Commission underscored that the importance of the post event reporting requirement “cannot be overstated.”<sup>47</sup> In absence of adequate reporting, a utility cannot assure the Commission or the public that it is acting in a manner that promotes public safety by relying on PSPS as a measure of last resort.<sup>48</sup> Reporting tardiness and omissions may harm the regulatory process and harm customers, governments, businesses, and vulnerable populations.<sup>49</sup>

The severity of harm caused by missed notices may be quantified by the number of notices missed, the repeated nature, the customer vulnerability and the costs incurred (monetary or otherwise). We consider the Commission’s discussion of the harm caused by missed PSPS notices and website failures in D.21-09-026 which discusses these factors.<sup>50</sup> These factors should also be considered in implementation of the PSPS Citation Program.

B. Conduct of the Utility.

In considering the conduct of the utility, the Commission assesses the “utility’s conduct in: (1) preventing the violation, (2) detecting the violation, and (3) disclosing and rectifying the violation.”<sup>51</sup>

The PSPS Citation Program empowers Commission Staff to adjust penalties within the given range considering these factors. Repetitive or avoidable violations might constitute evidence of utility conduct within this criterion, as demonstrated in D.21-09-026.<sup>52</sup>

C. Financial Resources of the Utility.

The Commission considers the financial resources of the utility to ensure that the degree of wrongdoing comports with the amount of the fine and is relative to the utility’s financial resources such that the amount will be an effective deterrence for that utility while not exceeding the constitutional limits on excessive fines.<sup>53</sup>

The PSPS Citation Program considers the financial resources of the IOUs subject to regulation by the PSPS Guidelines. However, Commission Staff should further consider the utility at issue when deciding to issue citations and level penalties within the citation program's penalty range.

D. Totality of the Circumstances.

This criterion considers facts that may mitigate or exacerbate the degree of wrongdoing. In all cases, the harm will be evaluated from the perspective of the public interest.<sup>54</sup>

As the Commission did in D.21-09-026, we establish this PSPS Citation Program considering the PSPS Guidelines, the utilities' section 451 safety and other obligations, the Commission's and the public's interest in ensuring safe PSPS events.<sup>55</sup> We affirm the adequacy of including the violations included herein, along with the ascribed ranges of penalty amounts within this citation program.

E. Past Commission Decisions.

The Commission will consider the "amount of the fine in the context of prior Commission decisions."<sup>56</sup> This criterion considers the proposed outcome compared with "previously issued decisions which involve the most reasonably comparable factual circumstances and explain any substantial differences in outcome."<sup>57</sup>

We looked to D.21-09-026 in establishing the Scheduled Fines in the PSPS Citation Program. While that decision does not offer guidance about fines for bad reporting, it calculates penalties for a failed PSPS website, and calculates missed notice penalties within a range of $600 and $10,000 per missed notice.<sup>58</sup> The multiplier within this range depended on the offense repeating, and the type of customer that missed notices.<sup>59</sup> Considering this decision, we find that a penalty range between $500 and $1,000 per missed notice is appropriate and reasonable for this citation program. Alternatively, it would be reasonable for Staff to calculate penalties considering the cumulative notices missed per event. When issuing citations under this PSPS Citation Program, Commission Staff should explain its application of penalties using the D.98-12-075 penalty assessment methodology framework. In doing so, Staff should look to decisions including D.21-09-026 and those finalized AEOs.<sup>60</sup> Commission Staff should also consider a utility's explanations provided in its post-event reports or data request responses, and any reports that might focus its implementation of the PSPS Citation Program within the Scheduled Fines.

For the second PSPS event where repeat offenses occurred, the decision fined PG&E $3,000 per customer and $10,000 per medical baseline customer.

4. Other Commission Action.

In appropriate situations, Commission Staff may meet and confer with the utility, issue a Notice of Violation (NOV), require corrective action, and/or take whatever other appropriate action to best ensure compliance with the PSPS Guidelines. Whether it is cited or not, Staff should document each utility violation.

Utilities may request a hearing on a citation pursuant to the procedure adopted within Appendix A, the Citation Appellate Rules and Resolution ALJ-377. To ensure transparency, Staff shall publish citations and appeals on the Commission's website.

COMMENTS

Public Utilities Code Section 311(g)(1) provides that this resolution must be served on all parties and subject to at least 30 days public review and comment prior to a vote of the Commission.
