Code Section 1701.5(a) provides that the Commission shall resolve the issues raised in the scoping memo of a quasi-legislative proceeding, within 18 months of the date the proceeding is initiated, unless the Commission makes a written determination that the deadline cannot be met and issues an order extending the deadline. The current statutory deadline for completion of Rulemaking (R.) 21-10-001 is October 7, 2024.

On October 7, 2021, the California Public Utilities Commission (Commission) opened this Order Instituting Rulemaking (OIR) to develop and adopt a safety culture assessment framework for the regulated investor-owned electric and natural gas corporations as well as for the gas storage operators serving California. Additionally, this OIR was instituted to identify the structure, elements, and process necessary to drive each regulated investor-owned electric and natural gas utility and gas storage operator to establish and continuously improve their organization-wide safety culture. Accordingly, this OIR provides guidance on the form and content of the safety culture assessments for regulated electric and natural gas investor-owned utilities and gas storage operators, provides a venue for a review of their safety culture as an organization, and will determine a process for ongoing review and refinement of their safety culture assessments in future years.

A prehearing conference was held on March 30, 2022, to address the issues of law and fact, determine the need for hearing, set the schedule for resolving the matter, and address other matters as necessary.

On April 28, 2022, the assigned Commissioner issued a Scoping Memo and Ruling, establishing the Commission's intention to resolve this proceeding within 36 months of the date this Rulemaking was adopted. Consequently, the current statutory deadline is October 7, 2024.

On July 22, 2022, September 13, 2022, and June 10, 2024, the assigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) issued rulings seeking comment on policy Questions for safety culture assessments.

Throughout this time, the Commission has received numerous comments from interested parties. The Commission is reviewing these comments. The Commission needs additional time to consider the implications of these comments and available options in view thereof. Therefore, an extension of the statutory deadline until October 7, 2025, is appropriate to allow sufficient time to complete the envisioned work and adopt a decision resolving the issues in this proceeding.

2. Waiver of Comment Period

Under Rule 14.6(c)(4) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, the Commission may reduce or waive the period for public review and comment of proposed decisions extending the deadline for resolving ratesetting proceedings.
